FARMERS AGAINST COUNTY UNIT BILL

Rushville Township Branch of County Farm Bureau Adopts Three
Resolutions Wednesday

AN ADDRESS BY A. L. GARY

Farmers Favor Repeal of Teacher's Pension Law and Passage of Quail Protection Bill

An enthusiastic meeting of the Rushville township branch of the Rush County Farm Bureau was held at the Webb school building Wednesday evening, and 125 were present.
The evening was devoted to a regular business routine including talks, the passage of three resolutions, and the evening was closed with a social hour.

Foremost among the resolutions passed, was one against the passage of the county unit school law. A. L.
Gary of this city was present and gave his viewpoint on the proposed law, and the farmers adopted the resolutions, urging the defeat of the measure.

Another resolution was passed, asking that the school teacher's pension law be repealed. The third resolution was passed, whereby the township unit went on record as favoring a bill prohibiting the shooting of quail for a period of two years, in order to replenish the supply.

In addition to talks by Mr. Gary, the plan of the State Producers Commission association as discussed by Charley Spencer, one of the directors.

The primary class of the Webb school furnished an interesting program for the visitors, and refreshments of sandwiches, pie and coffee were served.

Mr. Gary, in discussing the proposed school unit bill before the state legislature, pointed out its fallacies from many angles. He said that the new law would create a school oligarchy, at a time when we have not yet recovered from a horrible war to make the world safe for democracy, and takes away the local control of the schools.

He said that it was based upon the false assumption that a county superintendent who has had limited business experience can develop at once into a trained business man, and be competent to manage both the scholastic and business sides of the schools of the entire county.

Mr. Gary also stressed the following.

TENSION IN NEAR EAST IS RELIEVED

Turk Ultimatum That Allied Warships Leave Smyrna by Last Midnight Extended 24 Hours

SOMEONE BLUNDERED, BELIEF

(By United Press)

Tension in the Near East brought to the breaking point by a Turk ultimatum that allied warships of over 1,000 tons must get out of Smyrna harbor by last midnight was slightly relieved when the Governor of Constantinople extended the time limit 24 hours today and wired Ankara for instructions.

British and French men of war, well above the limit of tonnage based by the ultimatum, steamed into the gulf of Smyrna to demonstrate to the Turks that both countries defied the Angora government to start trouble.

American warships were in nearby waters, one destroyer being in the harbor.

The opinion prevailed in London, Paris and Constantinople that someone had blundered in issuing the ultimatum which Turkey obviously is not in a position to enforce, but the British cabinet continued its "war session" and the French rushed additional warships to the Near East.
A Turk representative at Constantinople expressed the opinion that "everything will end peaceably."

Ananias Club Heavy of Heart and Cold of Feet

Members of the Ananias Club, habitués of the court house, were heavy of heart and cold of feet today.

Reason—

George (Mitch) Mitchell, custodian, of the court house, had a lapse of memory Wednesday evening and left the water that runs into the boiler of the heating plant turned on.

Result—

Four or five feet of water was standing in the basement this morning and there was no heat in the icetad of justice.

The Ananias Club, that has been foregathering in the anteroom of the sheriff's office all winter had to look up new quarters this morning, but the shivering in the court house was expected to end this afternoon when heat again was shot through the steam pipes.

RICHMOND PASTOR SPEAKS TO KIWANIS

The Rev. W. McClean Work Addresses Club on Newspaper Work
at Luncheon Today

J. T. ARBUCKLE A SPEAKER

Two Rushville Ministers And Several Guests From Out City Present
—New Member Introduced

The Rev. W. McClean Work, pastor of the Reed Memorial United Presbyterian church at Richmond, who has been conducting a series of meetings at the First United Presbyterian church here for the past twelve days, addressed the Kiwanis club at the regular noon luncheon at the Social club today noon.

His subject was newspaper work, with which he is very familiar, by reason of having held many different positions on Pittsburg newspapers, before entering the ministry. He worked on the Pittsburg Chronicle Telegram, Post, Gazette Times and Dispatch and held every position from cub reporter to sporting editor, telegraph editor, city editor, editorial writer and special correspondent. On account of his wide experience in this field, he had a very interesting address for members of the club. It was confined largely to his experience in interviewing great men.

The other feature of the program today was an address by J. T. Arbuckle, district trustee of the club's state organization, on the subject,
"Kiwanis Education". The Rev. Gibson Wilson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and the Rev.
E. G. McKibben, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church, were guests at the meeting.

Other guests from out of the city present at today's meeting included
Frank Fites of Fort Wayne, Otto Meyer of Indianapolis, Israel Shuster of Greensburg and E. H. Oneall, a Rotarian from Crawfordsville.

Clarence Waldon was also introduced as a new member, having transferred his membership from the Connersville Kiwanis club to Rushville, since returning to this city, where he formerly lived. Mr. Waldron recently accepted a position at the Park Furniture company, after having lived in Connersville for the past several years.

illness of Bright's disease. The deceased was well known in this city and vicinity, having formerly lived on a farm southwest of the city.
The survivors are the widow, three sons and three daughters.

The body will be shipped to this city over the C. I. & W. and will tery for burial.

PAYMENT IN TEN YEARS PREDICTED

Rep. Burton, Member of Debt Commission, Foresees Early Settlement With the British

TO USE LOW INTEREST RATE

Sen. Harrison, Democrat, Attacks
Pres. Harding For Linking Ship
Subsidy With Debt Funding

Washington, Feb. 8.—Full payment of the British five billion dollar war debt to the United States "in little more than ten years" was predicted today by Representative Burton, of Ohio, a member of the American debt commission, in testimony before the ways and means committee.

Burton based his predictions on the belief that Great Britain would make an effort to take advantage of lower rate of interest agreed on for the first ten years.

"The settlement with Great Brittain," he said, "sets the low water mark of agreements for refunding the other war obligations owed this country."

He said no higher interest rates than those given Great Britain could be expected from other nations.

While the house committee began its consideration of the debt bill, Senator Harrison, Mississippi, in a fiery speech to the senate, assailed President Harding, for the tone of his message yesterday.

Harrison's attack on Harding centered mainly around the president's appeal to the senate to reach some understanding on the ship subsidy bill and his statement that postponement of such a decision was a mark of impotency.

"Why should the president offer this insult to the senate?" asked Harrison. "No other conclusion was possible than he wished the country to believe that the senate was impotent."

An administration drive in the senate to force decision on the ship subsidy bill demanded by President Harding was decided on today by senate leaders as the house ways and means committee took up the bill regarding the war debt settlements.

Mr. Harding's unexpected coupling of the debt funding and the subsidy bill in his message yesterday left congressional leaders somewhat disconcerted, with their carefully pre-arranged plan for quickly disposing of the debt legislation thrown askew.

A quick effort was made to get together on a new plan that would meet the president's wishes and not endanger passage of the debt legislation by March 3 when the present congress expires.

FRENCH CONTINUE ADVANCE AT DAWN

Extend Occupation Of The Ruhr In Direction Of Elberfeld—To Strengthen Essen Force

GENERAL STRIKE THREATENS

By CARL D. GROAT
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Berlin, Feb. 8.—French troops in newly occupied territory continued their advance at dawn, extending the occupation in the direction of Elberfeld.

Reports from Essen stated the French plan was to strengthen the garrison there with a new battalion.

Offenburg dispatches said excitement was increasing that the invaders had directed artillery against that city and were requisitioning every thing they required as though under war time conditions.

A general strike of German workers was threatened as a reprisal, with communists favoring separate action.

Government reports indicated a growing belief France intends to make one great militarized zone of the right bank of the Rhine and seize not only coal and coke but all by products including dyes.

PEOPLE NOWADAYS ARE NOT DIFFERENT

Men and Women in Most Respects Are Much Better, is Assertion of W. McClean Work

NO TIME FOR THE PESSIMIST

Richmond Pastor at United Presbyterian Church Discusses Christ's
Call to Present

"Men and women of the Twentieth Century are not essentially different from those of every other century and in most respects are much better," said the Rev. McClean Work, of Richmond at the United Presbyterian church Wednesday night. Mr.
Work's subject was "Christ's Call to the Twentieth Century."

The speaker said he had no sympathy with those who are continually "viewing with alarm."

His text was John 11:28, "The Master is here and calleth thee". The sermon in part follows: "This summons is important because of its source. The source is the source of all authority and power. It is the master of men, the captain of souls who calls."

"And the Master is here now. He is the master of the present tense, of the imperative mode, of the active voice, of transitive verbs."

"There is one thing more about the One who issues the substance and that is that he is the master of the progressive present. 'He is here and calleth thee.' He has been calling since the beginning of your accountability. He is calling now. I have no assurance that he will be calling you tomorrow but I have every assurance that he calls you now."

"But the emphasis of the summons is on the last word. 'Calleth thee.'
May I make this just as personal as Martha made it to her sister Mary? The Master is here and calleth THEE. He calls you away from your troubles and anxieties and sorrows and defeats to him and to his service."

Tonight Mr. Work will preach on
"The Two Greatest Wonders in the World". Friday night will close the series of services.

SIMILAR FIGHT IN HOUSE PREVENTED

Presence Of Crowd Of School Pupils In Legislature Keeps Representatives In Check

DISPUTE ALLEGED WASTE

Legislators Arque Over Charges That Carloads Of Lumber Are Burned
At The New Reformatory

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Feb. 8.—A crowd of school pupils from outstanding points prevented the house of representatives engaging in a stormy fight today, such as shook the senate yesterday afternoon.

Oscar Ahlgren representative from Lake county, read a letter which Governor McCray wrote to J. H.
O'Neil, purchasing agent of the new Indiana reformatory, regarding the charges of waste, extravagance and graft in construction of the institution and a reply from O'Neil to the governor.

Representative Gill, from Putman county, had informed the house he was told of burning of carloads of lumber at the reformatory and of men being employed to do "dirty work" at $4 a day. The governor transmitted the charges to O'Neil who replied that the charges were misleading.

"Only waste lumber is being burned," O'Neil said, "and even that is being used only to start fires."

He put the stamp of falsehood on the charges that men who do "dirty work" were receiving $4 per day.

Gill said he was uncertain as to the facts behind the charges and said he was willing to have an investigation.

Minority leader Gottschalk took the opportunity to declare there has been quite a lot of "dirty work" going on right here in the legislature since last night. He referred to the republican caucus called to assure passage of the appropriation measures in their form.

Then the children were presented to the house and the fight was averted.

The house killed the Schwing bill to abolish the state board of accounts.

A bill to provide for transference of money from one fund to another was introduced by Sen. Baxter. This would end a state of affairs which now exist in the different funds.
There is a deficit of $2,500,000 in the

WANT MORE MONEY AT FARM

Trustees Recommend Improvements at Putnamville Institution

(By United Press)

Greencastle, Ind., Feb. 8.—More buildings at the state penal farm are necessary, the annual report of trustees made public today said.

Money for three more dormitories and a dining hall was asked of the legislature.

It also recommended that a canning plant be established at the farm to save more of the perishable crop grown there. Other improvements are also recommended in the report which lists a number of improvements carried out by Superintendent Howard.

HEARING WILL BE RESUMED FEB. 14

Meantime Anderson Buzzes With
Story Of Relations Between Boy
And Preacher's Wife

DAUGHTERS ARE INVOLVED

Youngest Denies Story Related On Witness Stand By Forrest
Hampton, Age 16 Years

Anderson, Ind., Feb. 8.—The valentine of Rev. Frank Albright and his wife and three daughters will be delivered in court February 14 when their trial is resumed on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of 16-year-old Forrest Hampton. All are residents of Elwood.

Meanwhile during the next week the preacher and his family can rejoice in the belief that they "punc-tured Hampton's salacious testimony full of holes," as expressed by Attorney Bagot. While they rejoiced the town talked.

The boy's story of relations with the four women and their flat denial were on every tongue. His story of how the 40-year-old wife of the preacher-factory-worker is alleged to have vamped him and then to have passed him on to her two married daughters and finally to 16-year-old Lois, was retold and commented upon. Likewise, the denial of all members of the family and particularly the testimony of Lois who flew at Hampton on the witness stand and declared his tale was a lie.

Lois told her version while the crowd in the court room leaned forward to hear every word. She said there were no improper relations and that she was perfectly willing to submit to a medical examination to prove her story. Lois admitted that Hampton had come to the Albright home and said he wanted to stay there because his fostermother nagged him. She said he stayed there a week at one time.

It was during that week, that the state alleges Hampton shared a room with Lois. The girl said that Hampton slept downstairs and she had a room upstairs. She said that in accordance with the religious belief of her family each member kissed the other before retiring and that Hampton was regarded as a brother.

Bagot contends that a religious fight is behind the charges and says he will prove the character of the Albrights is beyond reproach when the hearing is resumed.

HUMAN FLY TO SCALE WALLS OF COURT HOUSE

will be give an exhibition in Rush-tonight at seven o'clock by climbing from the ground up the side of the court house to the ball of the flag pole on the court house tower.

Williams came in this morning from Connersville where he sealed the walls of the McFarland hotel Wednesday evening before a crowd that jammed the streets in the vicinity of the hotel.

A collection will be taken previous to the exhibition and part of the proceeds will be contributed to the high school band, which will play during the performance.

The climb will be made in the glare of spotlights which Williams put up today.

It will be recalled that the same feat was performed here a little over three years ago, on Armistice Day, November 11, 1919, by Harry Gardner, who also styles himself "The Human Fly."

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

DARKENS BEAUTIFULLY AND RESTORES ITS NATURAL COLOR AND LUSTRE AT ONCE

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME

Chorus of Returning Doughboys After Savannah Celebration

Savannah, Ga., Feb. 8.—"There's no place like home," soldiers back from the long "watch on the Rhine" chorused today, following the celebration which accompanied their landing yesterday.

"Germany's a darn good place to live," they all agreed, with a memory of living conditions they left behind, "but there's no place like home."

The difference in rate of exchange made their monthly stipend a near fortune, the doughboys explained.

The soldiers, with the German wives arrived here yesterday amid a welcome as enthusiastic as during war time.

Income Tax Facts

NO. 7.

Thousands of persons derive their income almost wholly from salaries or wages. Salaries paid by a State or political subdivision thereof as a city, town, county, or hamlet, however, are not taxable. The reason is that the Federal government does not tax the instrumentalities or a State. In this connection many persons have the mistaken belief that all school teachers are exempt from payment of the income tax. Teachers are not exempt from payment because engaged in educational work, but only when employed by a State or political subdivision thereof.

Public-school teachers in the District of Columbia, Alaska, and Hawaii are not in the exempted class for the reason that they are not State employees, and their salaries, or part thereof, are paid by the Federal Government. The salaries of all Federal officers and employees are subject to the tax except that a Federal income tax can not be levied on the salary of the President of the United States nor a Federal judge which would diminish the salary that was in effect at the time they took office.

The special exemption of $3,500 for persons in active military or naval service allowed under the revenue act of 1918 no longer is allowed. Soldiers and sailors in making returns of income for the year 1922 are allowed only the personal exemptions and credits granted a civilian.

AIRPLANE TO THE RESCUE

Petosky, Mich., Feb. 8.—Jesse Cole, Woodsman, was recovering today from an operation performed at Beaver Island, by Dr. R. B. Armstrong, who was rushed there by airplane after all attempts to reach the island over the ice failed.

Lieutenant Luff Meredith, of the army air service, rushed Armstrong to the island. The operation was performed immediately.

LIBRARY TO BE FUMIGATED

No More Books to be Loaned Until Cleaning is Completed

The Rushville library will be closed several days next week as the books will be fumigated. All persons who have books out, are requested to return them at once to the library, and not later than Monday. No books are being loaned now.

On account of contagious diseases during the past few months, it was decided to take this precaution, and have all books fumigated. During the sickness, the librarians were careful in loaning books, and did not give them to places under quarantine, and several books were destroyed where disease were reported while the books had been loaned.

RUSH COUNTY MAN FIFTY YEARS IN THE MINISTRY

The Rev. J. P. Cowan, who was born and reared in Richland township and has many friends and a number of relatives in Rush county, recently completed fifty years in the ministry, forty-three years of which has been spent as pastor of Indianapolis churches. The anniversary of his service was celebrated at the Woodruff United Presbyterian church in Indianapolis last Sunday, the following account of which appeared in Indianapolis newspapers:

At the morning services at the Woodruff United Presbyterian church Sunday the Forty-third anniversary of the pastorate in Indianapolis of the Rev. J. P. Cowan was celebrated. His subject, "Fifty Years in the Ministry and a Pastor in Indianapolis Forty-three Years," dealt with the history of church life in Indianapolis the pastor recalling the old churches and their progress. "When I first came to Indianapolis," he said "the First Baptist church stood on the site now occupied by the Star building; the First Presbyterian church was at what is now the northeast corner of the site of the Federal Building; the Meridian Street M. E. church was at the present site of the Indiana Bell Telephone Company building; the Tabernacle Presbyterian was at the northeast corner of Ohio and Illinois streets; the Plymouth Congregational in Meridian street south of the old Library building. At that time the churches east of the Monon tracks were considered only small missions, the Tenth street mission, a little frame church, being way out in the woods.

Dr. Cowan was congratulated for his faithful services by many friends. He expressed his satisfaction at having been able to serve in this city and to watch its progress. He is dean of Indianapolis ministers in continuous years of service, having come to Indianapolis the first Sunday in February, 1880, from Des Moines, Ia., where he had been pastor of the First Presbyterian church. For twenty-four years Dr. Cowan was secretary of the Indianapolis Ministerial Association. He was the first pastor of the First United Presbyterian church at East street and Massachusetts avenue, which at the beginning enrolled twenty-seven members. He preached there for thirteen years, leaving in 1892 to take the pastorate of the Woodruff United Presbyterian church.

HOUSE OF DAVID MAY BE EXPOSED

Secret Rites of Benton Harbor, Mich. Religious Cult Threatened With Court Inquiry

COMPLAINT BY TWO GIRLS

Allege Immoral Practices are Carried on Under Guise of Religion in $800,000 Damage Suit.

Paw Paw, Mich., Feb. 8.—Secret rites of the "House of David" of Benton Harbor, Mich., were threatened with exposure by court action today.

On February 18 Judge Robert DesVoignes will rule on a motion to prevent the questioning of "King" Benjamin Purnell in a suit for $800,000 damages brought by two of his girl followers.

The suit, filed by Ruth Bamford Reed, 17, and Gladys Bamford Rubel, 19, charges Purnell with immoral practices carried on under the cloak of religion.

Purnell in 1904 went to Australia and persuaded George Bamford and his wife and daughter Gladys to join the sect at Benton Harbor, according to the petition. Bamford later died but a second daughter Ruth was born to his wife.

Ruth in an affidavit declared she was subject to the will of King Benjamin from her birth. She declares she was ten years old when she first received the "call" to appear alone at the house of the king.

From that day until 1920 she was forced to do the bidding of Purnell, she said. At 15 she was ordered to marry Robert P. Reed but managed to put off the wedding two years. The couple were then sent to Johnstown, Pa., in a penniless condition, she charged.

Gladys declared she was 13 years old when she was first called before Purnell. She asserted the "king" told her that love was a religious rite and could only be performed by him. Benjamin Thomas Rubel was selected as her husband and she was forced to marry him to "protect Benjamin", according to the affidavit. The couple was sent to Grand Rapids to live.

INDICATE EXISTENCE OF PRE-HISTORIC MAN

MANY TOURISTS ON SCENE

Luxor, Egypt, Feb. 8.—Interest of scientists uncovering relics of the "Pharaoh age," turned from Tut-Ankh-Amen's tomb to Qualekebir in the Assis district where discoveries indicative of pre-historic man in Egypt were reported today.

The new find, according to word here, consists of a number of human and animal bones of unusual size. British scientists are reported to have uncovered them.

Excavation of Tut-Ankh-Amen's tomb progressed slowly today, owing to failure of the electric light plant supplying current for the antechamber. The great number of tourists flocking here also handicapped workers.

Three ship loads of tourists are anchored in the river opposite Luxor while the local population has also enormously increased in the last few days.

Experts were still in dispute today over the age of King Tut-Ankh-Amen, some insisting that articles taken from the tomb show him to have been a boy of 17 or 18 years and that his wife was little more than a child.

Mother-To-Be, Read This—

There is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers. When The Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have ever before. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says: "With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

Note: Write for valuable free illustrated book, "Motherhood and the Baby," containing important authoritative information which every expectant mother should have, and all about "Mother's Friend" to Bradford Regulator Company, B.A. Co., Atlanta, Ga. "Mother's Friend" is sold by druggists everywhere.

HOW GOD LOVES:—For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.—John 3: 16.

Why Slam Coue

In this age of skepticism, when only palpable facts seem to count, when human efforts center on the abolition of creeds and ideals, a man like M. Coue should be hailed as a benefactor. We have lost faith in many things, all religion is a myth, medical science a humbug or a fraud, surgery purely a commercial scheme. We have discarded creeds and drugs and turned for help for our physical ailments to all sorts of complicated, elaborated devices and diets, with satisfactory or unsatisfactory results, as the case may be. Lost in a sea of ultra-modern fanciful attempts, humanity continues to limp along, still and always searching for the panacea, the great cure-all.

What Dr. Emil Coue advocates is not new in any sense—not even his magic formula, which has been found in Virgil. Froude and Jung advocated this theory. Shakespeare referred to it. Back of all these Christ and his apostles evidently accepted it. Speaking of the subconscious element in conversion, William James in his book "The Varieties of Religious Experience", said, "It is difficult not to believe that subliminal influences play a decisive part in these abrupt changes of the heart, just as they do in hypnotism. If the grace of God operates, it probably operates through the subliminal (subconscious) door".

Robert Louis Stevenson dreamed about Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde; and to choose a contemporary instance, William Archer was visited in his sleep by "The Green Goddess". Coleridge, it is known, wrote "Kubla Khan" when his subconscious was in the ascendant, owing to the influence of a drug.

An eminent physician says Coue's theory is dangerous because it tends to delay the timely study of the case. It has been asserted that the large majority of cases flocking to the new cults are chronic, because too much timely study and experiment work has been done.

Another eminent doctor said the other day that about 75 percent of the people who go to the physicians with complaints could get well themselves.

All physicians admit that many nervous diseases, mental and physical, Bright's disease, diabetes, cancer and even death have been brought about by a wrong and morbid mental attitude. If this be so, it is logical to believe that a reversal of this mental attitude develops courage, hope, faith, cheerfulness, etc., and will correct these ills?

Why slam Coue? Is the practice of medicine an exact science? In 1921 the authorities at the Bellevue Hospital, New York, announced that autopsies held in that institute showed that their diagnosis had been wrong in 50 percent of the cases operated upon, and the hospital records of other cities are not any better.

Yet we know that one of Coue's most prominent critics recently advocated a law that would force patients to submit to a prescribed treatment for a given time. Another critic is advocating a law to compel all children at an early age to have their appendix removed. Another is advocating the removal of all tonsils and teeth, lest we become insane.

All of them are creating auto-suggestion wholesale of the very worst kind.

M. Coue cannot be acclaimed as a prophet or exponent of a new creed, but his method is simplicity itself. So simple that it has been scoffed at, as all simple solutions of seemingly complicated problems have been scoffed at. But its logic is irrefutable, and its effects are demonstrated every day of our lives. For that and that only, we are indebted to this student of nature's resources within ourselves. For the good his teachings have done to those unfortunate who imagine ills, let us all be thankful to M. Coue; more, let us be thankful to every one and everything, whether religious or scientific, whose means are to bring about curative auto-suggestion in the human mind, for in ourselves, indeed, dwells the power to expel imaginative ailments and the capacity to contribute through hope and confidence to the re-establishment of perfect health and higher ideals.

Good Medicine

In various sections of the country prosecuting attorneys are turning over to the Federal immigration authorities all aliens convicted of crimes involving moral turpitude. This list includes particularly those who violate the white slave law and the dope-traffic laws. Men thus turned over to the Federal authorities are promptly deported. This is not only a good way to get rid of some undesirables but also a good way to discourage more of their kind from coming to this country.

Why Enforcement Is Hard
(St. Louis Times)

There is no good citizen who will deny the general proposition that every law should be rigorously enforced. But there is no thoughtful observer who does not realize that there must be prevailing sentiment to enforcement of laws. This sentiment must be overwhelming. It must pervade the witness box and the jury room. It must be so manifest that officers know that it will control elections. It makes no difference what a law is, it cannot be enforced unless the people themselves uphold it.

It is equally true that contempt for one law brings general laxity. If an official winks at disregard for one law, under sufficient provocation he will wink at violation of another. If a juror breaks his oath in one case, his moral fibre has deteriorated. If a witness practices evasion in one case he will not tell the truth though the heavens fall in another case. A general lowering of character of officials, witnesses and jurors is inevitable.

These observations are true as to all laws. Instances of disregard of any kind of law, because of peculiar conditions, may be drawn from recent history. But there is one kind of law especially difficult to enforce. All laws of sumptuary character meet this difficulty.

When property is stolen, all owners of property unite to arrest and prosecute the offender. The witness is very clear in identification. The officials overlook no bit of evidence. The jurors are eager to see that stealing is stopped. But suppose the injured party should be vague and indefinite in his description. Suppose he went to the bounds of perjury, in his effort to shield the thief. Suppose the officials looked upon stealing as a popular vice. Suppose there were thieves on the jury.

These are the conditions under which sumptuary laws are enforced. Even when the people are aroused to a crusading spirit, they cannot maintain it permanently. Most must return to their ordinary business cares. Law violators can lie low during a crusade. After the excitement has died down, they come out of their retreats and renew their lawless activities. That is their business.

It is this situation which is causing so much woe to the administration at present.

Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula) acts on the kidneys and bladder like Epsom Salts on the bowels. It cleans them out and helps to relieve the bladder of abnormal deposits. The tablets cost 25c each. This price makes it possible to place in the formula several expensive drugs, which are useful for relief. The formula is on the package. It is likely you have never taken anything similar. CLAIMING THE GAME

Assert Arlington Athletic Club Was Allowed Winning Field Goal After Foul Was Called

BOTH FREE SHOTS MISSED

In the basketball game played at Arlington Tuesday night, between the Shelbyville Elks and the Arlington team, the Shelbyville team is claiming the victory by the score of 22 to 21, instead of Arlington winning, 23 to 22, as announced Wednesday.

In explaining the situation, the Shelbyville Democrat says:

During the final minutes of play, the Elks were leading in the Arlington game by a score of 22-21, when Fletcher, local back guard committed a foul under the Arlington basket. Shortly after the foul was committed and called by the referee the Arlington player, who was fouled, dropped a field goal through the hoop, which, according to rules of the game should not have counted. The referee, in calling the foul, held up two fingers, denoting that the Arlington foul thrower would receive two free throws at the basket, and the Arlington scorers interpreted the signal as meaning that the field goal counted. Both fouls were missed by the Arlington foul thrower, and consequently the correct score is 22-21 in favor of the Elks, since the gun was fired shortly after the fouls were thrown.

SPORTS FOR THE WINTER

Commercialism in Athletics

(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 8—Taint of commercialism, the greatest evil of sports, is confined to professional activities. Its influence and its bad effect are beginning to be felt in amateur athletics.

Paul H. Henning, chairman of the registration committee of the central A. A. U. district and one of the most active supporters of amateur athletics in the United States, recently suspended Joie Ray because the famous little middle-distance runner had participated in an unsanctioned boxing tournament.

Big athletic clubs in New York were planning to feature the appearance of Ray at their winter meets protested. Henning was overruled. Ray was reinstated and Henning resigned.

Henning declared it was a question of gate receipts and that violation of the rules was not considered.

Until the big clubs began to fall for the temptation of the "gate", amateur track and field athletics under the jurisdiction of the A. A. U.

were the best governed sport in the world. It is still an efficient organization. It has been criticized for autocratic measures at times, but strict discipline requires strict methods.

The A. A. U. is still a wise and scrupulous supervisor of the athlete, but it should apply the same zealous attention to the clubs.

To give an example of the lines of distinction drawn between the athletes and the clubs, a recent incident is recalled. Several big clubs advertised and drew big crowds on the promise that many star athletes would compete. The stars failed to appear and the crowds naturally protested with yells of "the bunk".

Loren Murchison, Jack Scholz and Sol Butler, three prominent athletes, were summoned to appear before the registration committee and explain why they did not appear. It developed that none of them had signed an entry blank and that the club had used their names without their permission.

Scholz claims that it is not the first time that he has been made the victim of such practices.

Instead of being so ever ready to plaster a suspension on an athlete, the A. A. U. ought to give some of the club officials a vacation.

Jewtraw also won the half mile and three mile events, bringing his total to five out of six victories, 170 points out of a possible 180 in the first meet of the series for the Adirondack Gold Cup. The New York State Champion breezed through the three-quarter mile in 2:2 4-5, clipping 32.5 seconds from the world's amateur record of 2:6 1-5, set last February by William Steinmetz, of Chicago.

A MUSEMENTS

At Mystic On Friday

A "red-blooded" picture is one way to sum up Edward "Hoot" Gibson's latest. Universal starring vehicle "The Lone Hand", showing Friday at the Mystic Theatre. This Western comedy drama is brimful of action and he-man struggle that registers a thrill to the minute.

The story is from the pen of Ralph Cummins, adapted to the screen by A. P. Younger. Reeves Eason directed the picture.

Supporting the star is a well known cast of players headed by Marjorie Daw. She has the part of the only daughter of a miserly old miner who is suspicious of everyone. William Welsh gives an excellent portrayal of the miser.

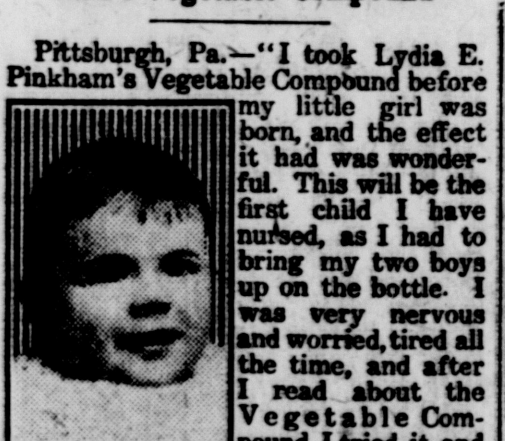

The plot created by Cummins is an unusual one. It has to do with a leather-necked cowpuncher who tires of the routine life on the ranch and decides to take a bit of vacation, at a summer resort noted for its exclusiveness and up to the minute style. Of course he cuts a conspicuous figure. He meets a girl who tells him that she and her aged father are in dire distress; they are being swindled out of their mining property by a group of high bidders. The vacationing cowboy gives up his pleasure chase and sets about showing the crooks that they can't do things like that in his country. He saves the mine, wins a wife and decides he'll never leave the old ranch again.

Battle Scene In Pictures

The day is often big with accomplishments in motion pictures. For example, Philip Rosen, directing Rodolph Valentino in "The Pittsburgh, Pa. — "I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my little girl was born, and the effect it had was wonderful. This will be the first child I have nursed, as I had to bring my two boys up on the bottle. I was very nervous and worried, tired all the time, and after I read about the Vegetable Compound I tried it and kept on with it. I still continue its use and recommend it to my friends. You may publish these facts as a testimonial for your medicine." — Mrs. WM. KLINGE, 189 Plymouth St., Pittsburgh, Pa.

It is remarkable how many cases have been reported similar to this one. Many mothers are left in a weakened and run-down condition after the birth of the child, and for such mothers the care of the baby is well-nigh impossible. Not only is it hard for the mother, but the child itself will indirectly suffer.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent tonic for the mother at this time. It is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, and does not contain any harmful drugs. It can be taken in safety by the nursing mother.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr.
Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

Miss Georgia Myrle Myers, daughter of Julius Myers of near Milroy, and Carl Jackson Anderson of Ripley county, were married at the Main Street Christian church parsonage this afternoon by the Rev. L. E. Brown. They will reside on a farm near Milroy.

Mrs. Guy McBride of Mays has gone to Columbia City, Ind., to attend the wedding of Miss Margaret Mason, which will take place Saturday. Miss Mason is well known here having visited Mrs. McBride, who was formerly Miss Fanny Stiers, on a number of occasions.

The members of the congregation of the First Presbyterian church will hold a reception in the church parlors next Tuesday evening, for their new pastor, the Rev. Gibson Wilson, and family. The reception was planned for Friday evening of this week, but was postponed until next Tuesday evening.

The members of the Get-Together Club met Wednesday afternoon for their regular meeting with Mrs. John A. Gray in North Perkins street. The meeting was a splendid one, with a good attendance. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, February 20, with Mrs. G. P. Maury, at her home in North Main street.

Seventy guests attended the dinner dance given at the Social club Wednesday evening in North Morgan street. The captains who had charge of serving the delicious dinner were Mrs. Ben Humes and Mrs. Harold Pearce. Among the guests present was Mrs. Allen Messick of Marion, Indiana. Following the dinner the remainder of the evening was enjoyed in dancing, the Ki-Barber orchestra of Indianapolis furnishing splendid music.

The following program was given by the Progressive Booster's Class of the First Baptist church Tuesday evening, when they entertained with a six o'clock chicken supper, honoring their pastor and wife, the Rev. and Mrs. Reno Tacoma, and members of the choir and orchestra, of which W. ## Barbers' Union Splitting Hairs Over Price of Shave

Chicago, Feb. 8.—A split in the ranks of the barbers union threatened here today as 35 cent shaves went into effect.

The increase from 25 cents was announced by the master of barbers employing union labor. They declared the higher price was necessary because of increased rents. Hair cuts were recently raised from 60 to 75 cents.

The raise of the master barbers was bitterly opposed by the Barber's Union, according to Arthur J. Raymond, secretary.

"The new prices place Chicago in the first place in the high cost league", Raymond said.

Princess Mary Of England Gives Birth To Son Wednesday Night

London, Feb. 8.—A son, heir sixth removed to the British throne, was born to Britain's beloved Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles at Chesterfield House last night. Today's official bulletins proclaimed "Mother and son doing well."

King George and Queen Mary were early at the town house of Viscount Lascelles and his princess wife, and other members of the Royal family called to pay respects to the little new-comer, while popular rejoicing amounting almost to a public holiday reigned in London.

An official bulletin at 10 o'clock read: "The Princess Mary passed a comfortable night. Her condition this morning was quite satisfactory."

(Signed) SIMPSON
Word was also issued to the effect that the baby, who despite his mother's royal birth, is only a commoner, with "honorable" as his only title, was doing excellently.

"The bill is framed on the theory that all small schools should be abolished, and the children transported to the larger schools. There is no doubt that the small high school is an expensive luxury, but if we would keep our young people on the farm, their associates and Community life must be developed in the country. No township should be retained unless it has a center of some kind where its people, young and old may meet for enjoyment and discussion of public questions, or questions affecting that particular community. Those favoring this bill cannot contend that the larger school is better for the morals of the child than the small school. The all too numerous reports in the daily papers and whispered about, are all too convincing. When the school becomes so large that the teacher and pupil do not have that chance for close personal acquaintance the pupil becomes a mere cog in the wheel, and his individual welfare receives little or no attention until he interferes with the entire machine.

"This bill is so revolutionary and so full of possibilities for harm, that it should not be rushed through this session of the General Assembly. The less machinery we have in our school system, the better. Let our townships retain the right of self determination."

German Police Dogs May Be Used To Catch Bootleggers

Indianapolis, Feb. 8.—German police dogs may be brought to Indianapolis to work in the police department, if plans announced today by Mayor Shank are carried out.

The Mayor said that the dogs would be a great aid to night riding squads, who patrol the city in automobiles to detect crime. Criminals could be caught then without shooting them, the mayor said.

In all probability if the plans are put through, the dogs would be brought to this country and a German trainer would be obtained to train them.

Rudolph Valentino Declares He Will Not Make Pictures Under Corporation Direction

INJUNCTION MODIFIED

Detroit, Feb. 8.—Future offers of Famous Players-Lasky Corporation to make pictures under their direction will not be accepted, Rudolph Valentino, "movie shiek" declared here today.

Valentino, accompanied by his wife professionally known as Miss Madam, are on a week's engagement at the Majestic Institute of dancing. This is the "shiek's" first professional appearance anywhere on his own be half since the injunction served by the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation to restrain him from professional work was modified.

The injunction, as it was modified, forbids Valentino to perform in any theatre, motion picture house, or on the speaking stage.

"That's why I have come to a dancing school, because I do not want to be cited for contempt of court," the "shiek" declared.

"There are two more years to my contract with the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation, but I will not accept their offer to return to them. I know what they would do in these next two years—try to ruin me. I have not worked hard for six years to throw it all away."

The Valentino's gave several exhibitions of the Argentine Tango.

TODAY IN MUSIC

Olga Samaroff, pianiste, will make a departure from the conventional program at her New York recital. There will be no printed program and Mme. Samaroff will choose her selections from written requests by the audience and those which suit her "mood" at the time of the concert.

Rubin Goldmark's latest composition, "A Negro Rhapsody," was given its first performance anywhere last year by the New York Philharmonic Orchestra under Josef Stransky. Goldmark's rhapsody is skillfully built on familiar negro tunes, including several of the "spirituals", notably "Nobody Knows De Trouble I've Seen."

Within the space of a short week, three visiting fiddlers delighted New York audiences with their talent. They were Juan Manen, Spaniard; Miss Renee Chemet, French and Miss Erna Rubenstein, German. Erna Rubenstein had been heard here in past seasons and although but sixteen years of age, she is one of the most capable of women violinists. Juan Manen returned after a two years absence played to a crowded house. It would seem that no technical feat is too difficult for him and his tone is beautiful and warm. Miss Chemet, in addition to delivering "the goods" as a violinist, has a charming personality which stands her in good stead with her audiences. These "fiddlers three" are a welcome augmentation to the music season's activities.

George Enesco has been gaining no little fame in three different lines of musical endeavor during the past two weeks in New York. The visitor from Rumania has presented his own compositions played by the Philadelphia Orchestra under his conductorship, including his second "Rhapsodie Roumaine" and his second symphony, and a few days ago, he gave a violin recital in Town Hall, wherein he displayed a splendid control over his instrument. It has been remarked that Rumanians, especially if they have a strain of gypsy blood, can do anything, and Enesco is proving it.

Sees Destruction of Home Unless Divorces are Curbed

Chicago, Feb. 8.—The ultimate destruction of the American home, unless nation-wide steps are taken to curb the divorce evil, was predicted today by Dr. Lennie Rhodes, ordained minister and assistant pastor of the Second Baptist church here.

"The divorce question is the greatest problem the nation faces today", Miss Rhodes said. "Timorous legislators and a quiescent public have failed to help the situation."

More rigid marriage laws requiring applicants for licenses to undergo physical and mental examinations were favored by Chicago's only woman minister.

"Secret marriage and elopements should be made violations of the law," she said. "Applications to wed should be in the form of public petitions published in the newspapers for several days."

"The proposed Capper bill does go far enough in its restrictions of grounds for divorce. A greater use of the separation clause would improve the measure."

"Infidelity without collusion and incurable insanity should be the only grounds for divorce."

SIMILAR FIGHT IN HOUSE PREVENTED

general fund and an excess in other funds.

Men and women will have equal rights under a bill introduced by Representative Perkins.

The teacher's pension fund law would be replaced in a bill introduced by five representatives. A similar bill has been introduced in the upper house.

State acceptance of provisions of the federal Sheppard-Tower act was halted in the senate when a bill providing acceptance lacked a constitutional majority for passage. It may come up again for passage, however.

A spark of dissension in the Indiana legislature today would touch off a situation of powder keg potentiality.

In the senate, the democratic minority still nursed its threat to leave the session in the squabble over state finances.

In the house, republican leaders admitted that they were not successful in pledging all of their followers to vote for the $2,000,000 reformatory request of Governor McCray and were apprehensive of the outcome.

Democratic leaders in the senate declared the fight for complete information concerning state finances and concerning the reason why the state board of finance has not complied with the law requiring depositaries to be designated on the first Monday in January is not ended. It was said some members had information which would cause a profound sensation if made public.

Feeling between the two parties in the senate was still tense when the upper house convened. Although debates had subsided there were reports that more trouble would follow.

A fist-fight was nearly precipitated between Minority Leader Joe Cravens and Senator Dailey, republican, during the debate yesterday when Dailey called Cravens a coward and Cravens lunged at him. Cravens succeeded by a parliamentary coup in writing on the journal his protest against the state board of finance refusing to give the senate information as to the financial condition of Indiana.

A caucus and several other meetings of republican representatives last night preparatory to the appropriation bill coming up for second reading failed to bring complete accord on the reformatory project. It was said a compromise may be affected appropriating $1,500,000. With some sickness in the republican ranks and their normal majority of four votes reduced, it would be necessary for democrats to vote with them to pass the bill. One democrat was said to be pledged to vote with the republicans, but the outcome was in doubt.

THE MAUZY COMPANY

Avenues of Service

REGINALD McKENNA, head of the largest bank in the world, says that "Splendid isolation is a dream," a truth which every industrial leader accepts as axiomatic. Had he substituted monopoly for isolation he would have expressed another self-evident truth which would have been acclaimed by every man who has given serious thought to the development of business on a large scale.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is a big business striving to do a big job in a big way, yet no thought is given to achieving a monopoly: for those who direct the Company's activities know that in any basic industry such an ambition is impossible of fulfillment. Competition is welcome, for no single organization can hope to serve the people of the Middle West with petroleum products as they should be served. The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) enjoys a large volume of business and is satisfied to let this volume take care of its profits.

There is a reciprocal bond between every great industrial organization and the social environment in which it operates. An organization is truly great only when the service it renders is great.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is in daily contact with a community of about 30 million people.

It serves them through a host of useful products refined from petroleum. Through these products it touches the home and industrial life of the people. It enters the sick chamber with mineral oil and petroleum jelly. It enters the factory, the roundhouse, and the farmyard with lubricating oils for machines, engines, and tractors. It seeks the farm home with gasoline, kerosene, candles and parowax. It touches the railroad right of way with Fortnite Long Time Burner Oil for signal lamps; it supplies thousands of public and private garages with gasoline and lubricants. It feeds the furnaces of homes and factories with Stanolind Furnace Oil. It goes to the hospital with Stanolind Surgical Wax. It paves the streets with Stanolind Paving Asphalt.

These are but a few of the avenues of service which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) maintains. To keep these avenues open the Company operates 1700 service stations, 3900 bulk stations, 7000 tank wagons serving thousands of garages, and 6 great refineries to supply their needs.

Thus does the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) acknowledge its reciprocal bond, and by creating a host of useful, essential products from a single basic raw material—crude petroleum—justify its claim to master craftsmanship in industrial husbandry.

ORDER ROADS TO ISSUE NEW TICKETS

Congress Authorizes Interchangeable
Tickets of $90 to be Sold at Reduction of 20 Percent

AFFECTS A LARGE SAVING

Rules and Regulations For Issuance of Tickets Will be Issued by Interstate Commerce Commission March 1

Washington, Feb. 8—The interstate commerce commission has ordered the railroads of the country to issue non-transferable interchangeable tickets in the denomination of $90, to be sold at a reduction of twenty percent of the face value of the ticket.

Such tickets were strongly urged by the commercial travelers of the country and congress recently passed a bill authorizing their issuance.

The railroads were ordered to issue the new tickets on and after March 1.

For persons whose travel bill exceeds $90 a year the order amounts to a reduction of 20 percent in passenger fares. No estimate was made of the number of persons thus affected but it is known that the order will affect a large saving to the traveling public and particularly to the business interests who employ large numbers of traveling salesmen.

The tickets will be good for one year from date of sale on all passenger trains, except that in the use on special or extra fare trains owners will be subject to the payment of extra fare.

Railroads issuing the tickets were ordered by the commission to keep a record of the use of the tickets for the first year to determine their effect on passenger revenues.

Rules and regulations for issuance of the tickets will be issued by the commission about March 1.

A $90 ticket will cost $72.

The order applies to approximately 250 roads, including all class one lines. Some smaller roads were exempted.

Applicants for mileage rates asked for a reduction of 33 1/2 percent, the rate that prevailed before the privilege was abrogated during the war.

The mileage order is practically a reduction in rates, the first cut since the increases ordered by the interstate commerce commission in August, 1920.

To Owners of Low Priced Cars

If one car lasts you twice as long as another car—even should the second car be only half its price—you would do better to buy the more durable vehicle.

It would cost you less for maintenance; it would give you better performance; its service would prove far more consistent and reliable.

That is why you would do better to buy the Hupmobile.

The Hupmobile gives you greater economy of upkeep and operation than most lower priced cars; and it affords the unfailing service, and the durability, of cars two and three times its price.

WORLD'S TALLEST BUILDING

NEW YORK'S GREAT "GOTHIC CATHEDRAL OF COMMERCE"—TOWERING INTO THE CLOUDS

A remarkable photo, taken from the air, of the great Woolworth Building—highest building in the world—towering over all the other skyscrapers of Manhattan. This picture illustrates a remarkable contrast of American engineering science of half a century and today—directly in the background is the famous Brooklyn Bridge, almost fifty years old—the first great engineering wonder of the new world, while looming up above all other buildings is the world's greatest "Cathedral of Commerce"—a combination of architectural beauty and commerce—literally a modern wonder of the world, today. Shown at left, in the background, is the Manhattan Bridge, and Brooklyn stretching itself into the horizon. The Park Row Building, an early skyscraper, is shown like a child against the Woolworth tower, at right. The Postoffice, a famous landmark, is at the foot of the tower (at right). To the left is shown the gold dome of the Pulitzer building and next to it is the Tribune structure.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS
EFFECTS FARMERS

With 1923 Crop Season About to Start Farmer in Good Condition Here but in Mess Abroad

NEED MARKET FOR SURPLUS

Depends on Europe to Take Surplus and Prices Paid There Largely Control Domestic Prices

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

By CHARLES R. LYNCH

Chicago, Feb. 8.—The farmer is getting out of the financial hole into which he was plunged when the price of farm products crashed in 1920. The future of the farmer and his ability to climb all the way to the top of the hole depends on developments in the foreign situation. David R. Forgan, president of the National City Bank told the United Press today. Forgan, through his bank, is in close touch with farm conditions in all parts of the country.

"With the 1923 crop season about to start the American farmer finds himself in fine condition at home but in a mess abroad," Forgan said. "And no matter how good the condition is here his future success depends largely on the foreign situation which is exceptionally critical."

"The farmer must find a market for his surplus crops. Not only does he depend on Europe to take this surplus but the prices paid in Europe largely control domestic prices. "The truck and fruit farmer, within a short distance of a big city, is by far the best situated."

"The cotton farmer of the south, with cotton at 26 cents, has succeeded in liquidating most of his debts."

"The livestock and grain farmers are in the worst position with the former bearing the greatest load."

"On an average I would say that the farmer has recovered 50 percent from the depression."

"The only assistance the farmer can get now is in the nature of a financially and economically reconstructed Europe and apparently the situation abroad is one which must get worse before it can get better."

PURDUE BARRED ROCKS
FIFTH IN EGG CONTEST

Purdue hens have again sprung into the lime-light as egg producers. The Poultry Department for the second time has entered ten Barred Plymouth Rock pullets in the world's greatest egg laying contest held at the Connecticut Experiment Station at Storrs, Conn. There are 100 different pens entered and for the year ending Nov. 1, 1922 the Purdue pen was twentieth.

This year the birds are starting off much better and among the pens of birds that are of dual-purpose, breeds Purdue is becoming quite prominent. Of the twenty-six Plymouth Rock pens entered, Purdue holds fifth place for the first eleven weeks of the present contest, being two eggs behind the fourth pen. For the month of December the Purdue pen was second, laying 128 eggs out of a possible 300. During the first two weeks of January, Purdue has led Plymouth Rocks with 76 eggs out of a possible 140 and held fourth place among the sixty pens of Plymouth Rocks, Wyandottes and Rhode Island Reds.

The ten Purdue pullets were raised on the university farm and selected by external characteristics of high egg production. In other words their future egg production was estimated by handling the birds and at the present rate they bid fair to average close to 200 eggs each for the year.

Exceptionally high laying strains of Barred Rocks and White Leghorns are being developed at the University and the methods by which this is being done is being taught thousands of Indiana farmers through the extension service.

Don't Let That Cold
Turn Into "Flu"

Rub on Good Old Musterole

That cold may turn into "Flu," Grippe or, even worse, Pneumonia, unless you take care of it at once.

Rub good old Musterole on the congested parts and see how quickly it brings relief.

Colds are merely congestion. Musterole, made from pure oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other simple ingredients, is a counter-irritant which stimulates circulation and helps break up the cold.

As effective as the messy old mustard plaster, it does the work without the blister.

35c and 65c, in jars and tubes.

Better than a mustard plaster

COMBINE ALL DRY BILLS INTO ONE

Question Came Up As Special Order Of Business On Motion Of Rep. Harris Of Lake County

ELIMINATES CONFLICTION

Some Of Dry Bills Pending In House Approved By Senate And Others Have Been Introduced

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 8.—All dry bills seeking to make prohibition more stringent were combined into one by the state house of representatives today. The question came up as special order of business on motion of Representative J. Glenn Harris of Lake county.

Harris said his reason for making the motion was that the measures pending in the house may have some conflicting clauses that would cause confusion in the courts when they would be enforced. In making them into one bill the conflicting parts would be eliminated, he said.

Some of the dry bills pending in the house have been approved by the senate and others have been introduced by representatives. It the house carries out its intention, the measure would have to go through the mills of legislative machinery again.

The bills that have passed the senate and introduced in the house are as follows:

Make conveyance of more than one quart of intoxicating liquor in any vehicle a felony, punishable by one to five years imprisonment and a fine not exceeding $1,000.

Adding a jail sentence of thirty days for first offense against prohibition laws and providing imprisonment of one to two years for second offense and optional fine of $200 to $1,000. This bill would also prevent the suspension of sentences.

Five liquor bills introduced in the house are still awaiting consideration are:

Making the possession of a liquor distilling apparatus without license on conviction that is being used to make illicit liquor punishable by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 an imprisonment of one to five years.

Making it a felony to transport intoxicating liquor in a vehicle that is mortgaged or is not owned by the driver or where fire arms are carried.

Making a person convicted of driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated pay a fine of not more than $500 and serve a prison term of not more than six months; providing also that any person guilty of injuring another while driving a vehicle and failing to report the accident punishable by a fine not to exceed $500.

Providing any citizen may institute abatement proceedings to enjoin operations by liquor law violators.

GERMAN FORTRESS OCCUPIED BY AMERICAN ARMY WHILE ON THE RHINE
A remarkable aerial view showing the Star Spangled Banner flying over the proudest fortress of old Germany: "Ehrenbreitstein", the famed "Gibraltar of the Rhine", at the juncture of the Rhine (in foreground) and Moselle rivers, opposite to Coblenz. This section of Germany was under the control of the Army of Occupation from December 1st, 1918, when the stars and stripes were hoisted over the fortress, to January 24, 1923. On the point of land between the rivers is seen the huge equestrian statue of Kaiser Wilhelm I. Across the river from Ehrenbreitstein is Coblenz-Sutzel, the former quartermaster and motor transport base.

THE HOME GARDEN
What is Home without a Garden?

THE WHY AND WHERE OF GARDENING

Few are so favored of fortune that they have the ideal soil or situation for a garden. But such lack is no particular cause for worry. If the soil is not clear sand or gravel, and is not located in deep, impenetrable shade, it can be made to grow and yield a crop of vegetables.

The one absolute essential is sun. A vegetable garden to be a success must have sun for at least part of the day. There are a few vegetables which will survive shade, but none flourishes as vigorously or crops as reliably as in the sun.

Also, it is not necessary to worry over securing a supply of barnyard manure, which is becoming more and more a matter of difficulty and expense, unless the soil is very light and sandy. In the ordinary run of soil, a very successful vegetable garden may be grown with the use of commercial fertilizers easily procurable of any seed dealer.

There will always be a supply of autumn leaves, grass clippings, and dried weeds to be had, and these may be utilized for the most valuable function of barnyard manure—supplying humus to the soil. Up-to-date gardeners are making more and more use of these materials and so-called "green manures" to replace the decreasing supply of animal manures—and with excellent results. "Green manure" is a crop of clover or some other leguminous plant plowed under to improve the soil.

If you have a patch of land which is sunny for most of the day, do not hesitate to start your garden. It will be a good investment, provide healthful exercise, and furnish a new interest.

The home garden offers the only means by which some of our favorite vegetables can be placed at their best on your table.

Sweet corn is a striking example. Within half an hour after an ear is picked the loss of sugar content begins, through chemical action. The better varieties of sweet corn contain from 5 percent up of sugar, which gives them their delicious flavor. Only the home gardener, who learns to tell when the corn has arrived at that stage of development which is "just right", and who picks it at that stage, cooks it briefly in boiling water—again "just right", and sinks his teeth into its well-buttered tenderness half an hour after it has left the stalk—only he knows what sweet corn really is. Others may think they know, but for all who have not experienced the treat described, there is a joy remaining which they should not miss before they die.

Resolve to know it this year, and plan your garden now.

MODERN PIED PIPER SAYS HE WILL RID CITY OF RATS

J. R. Waterman, modern pied piper, who says he will rid the city of rats. Instead of music, Waterman will use barium carbonate a white crystalline salt which make the varmints turn up their heels in four to thirty hours he said.

Waterman has received the sanction of the city board of health in his drive.

Government bulletins, he said, claim there is one rat for every person in the nation. Each rat destroys $1.82 worth of property, including food. This puts the annual loss to Marion well over $30,000.

FARMERS AGAINST COUNTY UNIT BILL

Rushville Township Branch of County Farm Bureau Adopts Three
Resolutions Wednesday

AN ADDRESS BY A. L. GARY

Farmers Favor Repeal of Teacher's
Quail Protection Bill

An enthusiastic meeting of the Rushville township branch of the Rush County Farm Bureau was held at the Webb school building Wednesday evening, and 125 were present. The evening was devoted to a regular business routine including talks, the passage of three resolutions, and the evening was closed with a social hour.

Foremost among the resolutions passed, was one against the passage of the county unit school law. A. L. Gary of this city was present and gave his viewpoint on the proposed law, and the farmers adopted the resolutions, urging the defeat of the measure.

Another resolution was passed, asking that the school teacher's pension law be repealed. The third resolution was passed, whereby the township unit went on record as favoring a bill prohibiting the shooting of quail for a period of two years, in order to replenish the supply.

In addition to talks by Mr. Gary, the plan of the State Producers Commission association as discussed by Charley Spencer, one of the directors.

The primary class of the Webb school furnished an interesting program for the visitors, and refreshments of sandwiches, pie and coffee were served.

Mr. Gary, in discussing the proposed school unit bill before the state legislature, pointed out its fallacies from many angles. He said that the new law would create a school oligarchy, at a time when we have not yet recovered from a horrible war to make the world safe for democracy, and takes away the local control of the schools.

He said that it was based upon the false assumption that a county superintendent who has had limited business experience can develop at once into a trained business man, and be competent to manage both the scholastic and business sides of the schools of the entire county.

Mr. Gary also stressed the following:

TENSION IN NEAR EAST IS RELIEVED

ships Leave Smyrna by Last Midnight Extended 24 Hours

SOMEONE BLUNDERED, BELIEF

(By United Press)

Tension in the Near East brought to the breaking point by a Turk ultimatum that allied warships of over 1,000 tons must get out of Smyrna harbor by last midnight was slightly relieved when the Governor of Constantinople extended the time limit 24 hours today and wired Ankara for instructions.

British and French men of war, well above the limit of tonnage based by the ultimatum, steamed into the gulf of Smyrna to demonstrate to the Turks that both countries defied the Ankara government to start trouble. American warships were in nearby waters, one destroyer being in the harbor.

The opinion prevailed in London, Paris and Constantinople that someone had blundered in issuing the ultimatum which Turkey obviously is not in a position to enforce, but the British cabinet continued its "war session" and the French rushed additional warships to the Near East. A Turk representative at Constantinople expressed the opinion that "everything will end peaceably."

Ananias Club Heavy of Heart and Cold of Feet

Members of the Ananias Club, habitués of the court house, were heavy of heart and cold of feet today.

Reason—

George (Mitch) Mitchell, custodian of the court house, had a lapse of memory Wednesday evening and left the water that runs into the boiler of the heating plant turned on.

Result—

Four or five feet of water was standing in the basement this morning and there was no heat in the citadel of justice.

The Ananias Club, that has been foregathering in the ante-room of the sheriff's office all winter had to look up new quarters this morning, but the shivering in the court house was expected to end this afternoon when heat again was shot through the steam pipes.

RICHMOND PASTOR SPEAKS TO KIWANIS

The Rev. W. McClean Work Ad-

at Luncheon Today

J. T. ARBUCKLE A SPEAKER

Two Rushville Ministers And Several Guests From Out City Present
—New Member Introduced

The Rev. W. McClean Work, pastor of the Reed Memorial United Presbyterian church at Richmond, who has been conducting a series of meetings at the First United Presbyterian church here for the past twelve days, addressed the Kiwanis club at the regular noon luncheon at the Social club today noon.

His subject was newspaper work, with which he is very familiar, by reason of having held many different positions on Pittsburgh newspapers, before entering the ministry. He worked on the Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegram, Post, Gazette Times and Dispatch and held every position from cub reporter to sporting editor, telegraph editor, city editor, editorial writer and special correspondent. On account of his wide experience in this field, he had a very interesting address for members of the club. It was confined largely to his experience in interviewing great men.

The other feature of the program today was an address by J. T. Arbuckle, district trustee of the club's state organization, on the subject, "Kiwanis Education." The Rev. Gibson Wilson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and the Rev. E. G. McKibben, pastor of the First United Presbyterian church, were guests at the meeting.

Other guests from out of the city present at today's meeting included Frank Fites of Fort Wayne, Otto Meyer of Indianapolis, Israel Shuster of Greensburg and E. H. O'Neill, a Rotarian from Crawfordsville.

Clarence Waldon was also introduced as a new member, having transferred his membership from the Connersville Kiwanis club to Rushville, since returning to this city, where he formerly lived. Mr. Waldon recently accepted a position at the Park Furniture company, after having lived in Connersville for the past several years.

PAYMENT IN TEN YEARS PREDICTED

Rep. Burton, Member of Debt Commission, Foresees Early Settlement With the British

TO USE LOW INTEREST RATE

Sen. Harrison, Democrat, Attacks
Subsidy With Debt Funding

Washington, Feb. 8.—Full payment of the British five billion dollar war debt to the United States "in little more than ten years" was predicted today by Representative Burton, of Ohio, a member of the American debt commission, in testimony before the ways and means committee.

Burton based his predictions on the belief that Great Britain would make an effort to take advantage of lower rate of interest agreed on for the first ten years.

"The settlement with Great Britain," he said, "sets the low water mark of agreements for refunding the other war obligations owed this country."

He said no higher interest rates than those given Great Britain could be expected from other nations.

While the house committee began its consideration of the debt bill, Senator Harrison, Mississippi, in a fiery speech to the senate, assailed President Harding, for the tone of his message yesterday.

Harrison's attack on Harding centered mainly around the president's appeal to the senate to reach some understanding on the ship subsidy bill and his statement that postponement of such a decision was a mark of impotency.

"Why should the president offer this insult to the senate?" asked Harrison. "No other conclusion was possible than he wished the country to believe that the senate was impotent."

An administration drive in the senate to force decision on the ship subsidy bill demanded by President Harding was decided on today by senate leaders as the house ways and means committee took up the bill regarding the war debt settlements.

A quick effort was made to get together on a new plan that would meet the president's wishes and not endanger passage of the debt legislation by March 3 when the present congress expires.

FRENCH CONTINUE ADVANCE AT DAWN

Direction Of Elberfeld—To

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Berlin, Feb. 8.—French troops in newly occupied territory continued their advance at dawn, extending the occupation in the direction of Elberfeld.

Reports from Essen stated the French plan was to strengthen the garrison there with a new battalion.

Offenburg dispatches said excitement was increasing that the invaders had directed artillery against that city and were questioning every thing they required as though under war time conditions.

A general strike of German workers was threatened as a reprisal, with communists favoring separate action.

Government reports indicated a growing belief France intends to make one great militarized zone of the right bank of the Rhine and seize not only coal and coke but all by products including dyes.

Richmond Pastor at United Presby-
Call to Present

"Men and women of the Twentieth Century are not essentially different from those of every other century and in most respects are much better," said the Rev. McClean Work, of Richmond at the United Presbyterian church Wednesday night. Mr. Work's subject was "Christ's Call to the Twentieth Century."

The speaker said he had no sympathy with those who are continually "viewing with alarm."

His text was John 11:28, "The Master is here and calleth thee." The sermon in part follows: "This summons is important because of its source. The source is the source of all authority and power. It is the master of men, the captain of souls who calls."

"And the Master is here now. He is the master of the present tense, of the imperative mode, of the active voice, of transitive verbs."

"There is one thing more about the One who issues the substance and that is that he is the master of the progressive present. He is here and calleth thee. He has been calling since the beginning of your accountability. He is calling now. I have no assurance that he will be calling you tomorrow but I have every assurance that he calls you now."

"But the emphasis of the summons is on the last word. 'Calleth thee.' May I make this just as personal as Martha made it to her sister Mary? The Master is here and calleth THEE. He calls you away from your troubles and anxieties and sorrows and defeats to him and to his service."

Tonight Mr. Work will preach on "The Two Greatest Wonders in the World." Friday night will close the series of services.

Legislators Argue Over Charges That Carloads Of Lumber Are Burned
At The New Reformatory

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Feb. 8.—A crowd of school pupils from outstanding points prevented the house of representatives engaging in a stormy fight today, such as shook the senate yesterday afternoon.

Oscar Ahlgren representative from Lake county, read a letter, which Governor McCray wrote to J. H. O'Neil, purchasing agent of the new Indiana reformatory, regarding the charges of waste, extravagance and graft in construction of the institution and a reply from O'Neil to the governor.

Representative Gill, from Putnam county, had informed the house he was told of burning of carloads of lumber at the reformatory and of men being employed to do "dirty work" at $4 a day. The governor transmitted the charges to O'Neil who replied that the charges were misleading.

"Only waste lumber is being burned," O'Neil said, "and even that is being used only to start fires."

He put the stamp of falsehood on the charges that men who do "dirty work" were receiving $4 per day.

Gill said he was uncertain as to the facts behind the charges and said he was willing to have an investigation.

Minority leader Gottschalk took the opportunity to declare there has been quite a lot of "dirty work" going on right here in the legislature since last night. He referred to the republican caucus called to assure passage of the appropriation measures in their form.

Then the children were presented to the house and the fight was averted.

The house killed the Schwing bill to abolish the state board of accounts.

A bill to provide for transference of money from one fund to another was introduced by Sen. Baxter. This would end a state of affairs which now exist in the different funds. There is a deficit of $2,500,000 in the

HEARING WILL BE RESUMED FEB. 14

Meantime Anderson Buzzes With
Story Of Relations Between Boy
And Preacher's Wife

Youngest Denies Story Related On
Witness Stand By Forrest
Hampton, Age 16 Years

Anderson, Ind., Feb. 8.—The valentine of Rev. Frank Albright and his wife and three daughters will be delivered in court February 14 when their trial is resumed on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of 16-year-old Forrest Hampton. All are residents of Elwood.

Meanwhile during the next week the preacher and his family can rejoice in the belief that they "punctured Hampton's salacious testimony full of holes," as expressed by Attorney Bagot. While they rejoiced the town talked.

The boy's story of relations with the four women and their flat denial were on every tongue. His story of how the 40-year-old wife of the preacher-factory worker is alleged to have "vamped him" and then to have passed him on to her two married daughters and finally to 16-year-old Lois, was retold and commented upon. Likewise, the denial of all members of the family and particularly the testimony of Lois who flew at Hampton on the witness stand and declared his tale was a lie.

Lois told her version while the crowd in the court room leaned forward to hear every word. She said there were no improper relations and that she was perfectly willing to submit to a medical examination to prove her story. Lois admitted that Hampton had come to the Albright home and said he wanted to stay there because his foster mother nagged him. She said he stayed there a week at one time.

It was during that week, that the state alleges Hampton shared a room with Lois. The girl said that Hampton slept downstairs and she had a room upstairs. She said that in accordance with the religious belief of her family each member kissed the other before retiring and that Hampton was regarded as a brother.

Bagot contends that a religious fight is behind the charges and says he will prove the character of the Albrights is beyond reproach when the hearing is resumed.

HUMAN FLY TO SCALE WALLS OF COURT HOUSE

Jack Williams To Climb From Ground To Top Of Flag Pole
Tonight At 7 O'clock

AT CONNERSVILLE LAST NIGHT.

Jack Williams, "The Human Fly," will be given an exhibition in Rushville tonight at seven o'clock by climbing from the ground up the side of the court house to the ball of the flag pole on the court house tower.

Williams came in this morning from Connersville where he scaled the walls of the McFarland hotel Wednesday evening before a crowd that jammed the streets in the vicinity of the hotel.

A collection will be taken previous to the exhibition and part of the proceeds will be contributed to the high school band, which will play during the performance.

The climb will be made in the glare of spotlights which Williams put up today.

It will be recalled that the same feat was performed here a little over three years ago, on Armistice Day, November 11, 1919, by Harry Gardner, who also styles himself "The Human Fly."

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME

Chorus of Returning Doughboys After Savannah Celebration

Savannah, Ga., Feb. 8—"There's no place like home," soldiers back from the long "watch on the Rhine" chorused today, following the celebration which accompanied their landing yesterday.

"Germany's a darn good place to live", they all agreed, with a memory of living conditions they left behind, "but there's no place like home."

The difference in rate of exchange made their monthly stipend a near fortune, the doughboys explained.

Income Tax Facts

NO. 7.

Thousands of persons derive their income almost wholly from salaries or wages. Salaries paid by a State or political subdivision thereof as a city, town, county, or hamlet, however, are not taxable. The reason is that the Federal government does not tax the instrumentalities or a State. In this connection many persons have the mistaken belief that all school teachers are exempt from payment of the income tax. Teachers are not exempt from payment because engaged in educational work, but only when employed by a State or political subdivision thereof.

Public-school teachers in the District of Columbia, Alaska, and Hawaii are not in the exempted class for the reason that they are not State employees, and their salaries, or part thereof, are paid by the Federal Government. The salaries of all Federal officers and employees are subject to the tax except that a Federal income tax can not be levied on the salary of the President of the United States nor a Federal judge which would diminish the salary that was in effect at the time they took office.

The special exemption of $3,500 for persons in active military or naval service allowed under the revenue act of 1918 no longer is allowed. Soldiers and sailors in making returns of income for the year 1922 are allowed only the personal exemptions and credits granted a civilian.

AIRPLANE TO THE RESCUE

Cole fractured his skull Monday. The island was cut off from the main land by ice floes.

LIBRARY TO BE FUMIGATED

No More Books to be Loaned Until Cleaning is Completed

The Rushville library will be closed several days next week as the books will be fumigated. All persons who have books out, are requested to return them at once to the library, and not later than Monday. No books are being loaned now.

On account of contagious diseases during the past few months, it was decided to take this precaution, and have all books fumigated. During the sickness, the librarians were careful in loaning books, and did not give them to places under quarantine, and several books were destroyed where disease were reported while the books had been loaned.

RUSH COUNTY MAN FIFTY YEARS IN THE MINISTRY

The Rev. J. P. Cowan, who was born and reared in Richland township and has many friends and a number of relatives in Rush county, recently completed fifty years in the ministry, forty-three years of which has been spent as pastor of Indianapolis churches. The anniversary of his service was celebrated at the Woodruff United Presbyterian church in Indianapolis last Sunday, the following account of which appeared in Indianapolis newspapers:

At the morning services at the Woodruff United Presbyterian church Sunday the forty-third anniversary of the pastorate in Indianapolis of the Rev. J. P. Cowan was celebrated. His subject, "Fifty Years in the Ministry and a Pastor in Indianapolis Forty-three Years," dealt with the history of church life in Indianapolis the pastor recalling the old churches and their progress. "When I first came to Indianapolis," he said "the first Baptist church stood on the site now occupied by the Star building; the First Presbyterian church was at what is now the northeast corner of the site of the Federal Building; the Meridian Street M. E. church was at the present site of the Indiana Bell Telephone Company building; the Tabernacle Presbyterian was at the northeast corner of Ohio and Illinois streets; the Plymouth Congregational in Meridian street south of the old library building. At that time the churches east of the Monon tracks were considered only small missions, the Tenth street mission, a little frame church, being way out in the woods.

Dr. Cowan was congratulated for his faithful services by many friends. He expressed his satisfaction at having been able to serve in this city and to watch its progress. He is dean of Indianapolis ministers in continuous years of service, having come to Indianapolis the first Sunday in February, 1880, from Des Moines, Ia., where he had been pastor of the First Presbyterian church. For twenty-four years Dr. Cowan was secretary of the Indianapolis Ministerial Association. He was the first pastor of the First United Presbyterian church at East street and Massachusetts avenue, which at the beginning enrolled twenty-seven members. He preached there for thirteen years, leaving in 1892 to take the pastorate of the Woodruff United Presbyterian church.

HOUSE OF DAVID MAY BE EXPOSED

Allege Immoral Practices are Carried on Under Guise of Religion in $800,000 Damage Suit.

Paw Paw, Mich., Feb. 8—Secret rites of the "House of David" of Benton Harbor, Mich., were threatened with exposure by court action today.

On February 18 Judge Robert DesVoignes will rule on a motion to prevent the questioning of "King" Benjamin Purnell in a suit for $800,000 damages brought by two of his girl followers.

The suit, filed by Ruth Bamford Reed, 17, and Gladys Bamford Rubel, 19, charges Purnell with immoral practices carried on under the cloak of religion.

Purnell in 1904 went to Australia and persuaded George Bamford and his wife and daughter Gladys to join the sect at Benton Harbor, according to the petition. Bamford later died but a second daughter Ruth was born to his wife.

Ruth in an affidavit declared she was subject to the will of King Benjamin from her birth. She declares she was ten years old when she first received the "call" to appear alone at the house of the king.

From that day until 1920 she was forced to do the bidding of Purnell, she said. At 15 she was ordered to marry Robert P. Reed but managed to put off the wedding two years. The couple were then sent to Johnstown, Pa., in a penniless condition, she charged.

Gladys declared she was 13 years old when she was first called before Purnell. She asserted the "king" told her that love was a religious rite and could only be performed by him. Benjamin Thomas Rubel was selected as her husband and she was forced to marry him to "protect Benjamin", according to the affidavit. The couple was sent to Grand Rapids to live.

INDICATE EXISTENCE OF PRE-HISTORIC MAN

MANY TOURISTS ON SCENE

Luxor, Egypt, Feb. 8—Interest of scientists unwearying relics of the "Pharaoh age," turned from Tut-Ankh-Amen's tomb to Quadekebir in the Assius district where discoveries indicative of pre-historic man in Egypt were reported today.

The new find, according to word here, consists of a number of human and animal bones of unusual size. British scientists are reported to have uncovered them.

Excavation of Tut-Ankh-Amen's tomb progressed slowly today, owing to failure of the electric light plant supplying current for the antechamber. The great number of tourists flocking here also handicapped workers.

Three ship loads of tourists are anchored in the river opposite Luxor while the local population has also enormously increased in the last few days.

Experts were still in dispute today over the age of King Tut-Ankh-Amen, some insisting that articles taken from the tomb show him to have been a boy of 17 or 18 years and that his wife was little more than a child.

Mother-To-Be, Read This—

Here is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers. When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more from from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., writes: "With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used Mother's Friend and had only a nurse. We had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

Note: Write for valuable free illustrated book, "Motherhood and the Baby," containing important authoritative information, each very important mother should have, and all about "Mother's Friend." In Bradfield Regulator Company, P.O. Box 22, Atlanta, Ga. "Mother's Friend" is sold by druggists everywhere.

Why Slam Cone

In this age of skepticism, when only palpable facts seem to count, when human efforts center on the abolition of creeds and ideals, a man like M. Cone should be hailed as a benefactor. We have lost faith in many things. All religion is a myth, medical science a humbug or a fraud, surgery purely a commercial scheme. We have discarded creeds and drugs and turned for help for our physical ailments to all sorts of complicated, elaborated devices and diets, with satisfactory or unsatisfactory results, as the case may be. Lost in a sea of ultra-modern fanciful attempts, humanity continues to limp along, still and always searching for the panacea, the great cure-all.

What Dr. Emil Cone advocates is not new in any sense—not even his magic formula, which has been found in Virgil, Freud and Jung advocated this theory. Shakespeare referred to it. Back of all these Christ and his apostles evidently accepted it. Speaking of the subconscious element in conversion, William James in his book "The Varieties of Religious Experience", said, "It is difficult not to believe that subliminal influences play a decisive part in these abrupt changes of the heart, just as they do in hypnotism. If the grace of God operates, it probably operates through the subliminal (subconscious) door".

Robert Louis Stevenson dreamed about Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde; and to choose a contemporary instance, William Archer was visited in his sleep by "The Green Goddess". Col-

eridge, it is known, wrote "Kubla Khan" when his subconscious was in the ascendant, owing to the influence of a drug.

An eminent physician says Cone's theory is dangerous because it tends to delay the timely study of the case. It has been asserted that the large majority of cases flocking to the new cures are chronic, because too much timely study and experiment work has been done.

Another eminent doctor said the other day that about 75 percent of the people who go to the physicians with complaints could get well themselves.

All physicians admit that many nervous diseases, mental and physical, Bright's disease, diabetes, cancer and even death have been brought about by a wrong and morbid mental attitude. If this be so, it is logical to believe that a reversal of this mental attitude develops courage, hope, faith, cheerfulness, etc., and will correct these ills?

Why slam Cone? Is the practice of medicine an exact science? In 1921 the authorities at the Bellevue Hospital, New York, announced that autopsies held in that institute showed that their diagnosis had been wrong in 50 percent of the cases operated upon, and the hospital records of other cities are not any better.

Yet we know that one of Cone's most prominent critics recently advocated a law that would force patients to submit to a prescribed treatment for a given time. Another critic is advocating a law to compel all children at an early age to have their appendix removed. Another is advocating the removal of all tonsils and teeth, lest we become insane.

All of them are creating auto-suggestion wholesale of the very worst kind.

M. Cone cannot be acclaimed as a prophet or exponent of a new creed, but his method is simplicity itself. So simple that it has been scoffed at, as all simple solutions of seemingly complicated problems have been scoffed at. But its logic is irrefutable, and its effects are demonstrated every day of our lives. For that and that only, we are indebted to this student of nature's resources within ourselves. For the good his teachings have done to those unfortunate who imagine ills, let us all be thankful to M. Cone; more, let us be thankful to every one and everything, whether religious or scientific, whose means are to bring about curative auto-suggestion in the human mind, for in ourselves, indeed, dwells the power to expel imaginative ailments and the capacity to contribute through hope and confidence to the re-establishment of perfect health and higher ideals.

Good Medicine

In various sections of the country prosecuting attorneys are turning over to the Federal immigration authorities all aliens convicted of crimes involving moral turpitude. This list includes particularly those who violate the white slave law and the dope-traffic laws. Men thus turned over to the Federal authorities are promptly deported. This is not only a good way to get rid of some undesirables but also a good way to discourage more of their kind from coming to this country.

DO YOU GET UP NIGHTS ON ACCOUNT OF BLADDER?

This Symptom Tells You Something Is Wrong. A Dayton Man's Experience.

Mr. John Lumpkins, 7 Carrie St., Dayton, Ohio, says in his own home paper, the Dayton Herald: "For two years I had to get up fifteen to twenty times each night. The scalding and pain was awful. After taking a few doses of Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula), the gravel came, and at least twenty-five pieces have passed. Some were as large as a bean. I am glad to have this way of telling my fellow sufferers about this great new remedy."

Lithiated Buchu (Keller formula) acts on the kidneys and bladder like Epsom Salts on the bowels. It cleans them out and helps to relieve the bladder of abnormal deposits. The tablets cost 2c each. This price makes it possible to place in the formula several expensive drugs, which are useful for relief. The formula is on the package. It is likely you have never taken anything similar. Try a few doses for backache, scanty or high colored urine and frequent desire at night.

Be sure to get the Keller formula Lithiated Buchu at Eisman & Wilson's drug stores everywhere, or write The Keller Laboratories, Mechanicsburg, Ohio.—Advertisement.

Current Comment

Why Enforcement Is Hard (St. Louis Times)

There is no good citizen who will deny the general proposition that every law should be rigorously enforced. But there is no thoughtful observer who does not realize that there must be prevailing sentiment to enforcement of laws. This sentiment must be overwhelming. It must pervade the witness box and the jury room. It must be so manifest that officers know that it will control elections. It makes no difference what a law is, it cannot be enforced unless the people themselves uphold it.

It is equally true that contempt for one law brings general laxity. If an official winks at disregard for one law, under sufficient provocation he will wink at violation of another. If a juror breaks his oath in one case, his moral fibre has deteriorated. If a witness practices evasion in one case he will not tell the truth though the heavens fall in another case. A general lowering of character of officials, witnesses and jurors is inevitable.

all laws. Instances of disregard of any kind of law, because of peculiar conditions, may be drawn from recent history. But there is one kind of law especially difficult to enforce. All laws of sumptuary character meet this difficulty.

When property is stolen, all owners of property unite to arrest and prosecute the offender. The witness is very clear in identification. The officials overlook no bit of evidence. The jurors are eager to see that stealing is stopped. But suppose the injured party should be vague and indefinite in his description. Suppose he went to the bounds of perjury, in his effort to shield the thief. Suppose the officials looked upon stealing as a popular vice. Suppose there were thieves on the jury.

These are the conditions under which sumptuary laws are enforced. Even when the people are aroused to a crusading spirit, they cannot maintain it permanently. Most must return to their ordinary business cares. Law violators can lie low during a crusade. After the excitement has died down, they come out of their retreats and renew their lawless activities. That is their business.

It is this situation which is causing so much woe to the administration at present.

SHELBYVILLE ELKS CLAIMING THE GAME

Allowed Winning Field Goal After Foul Was Called

BOTH FREE SHOTS MISSED

In the basketball game played at Arlington Tuesday night, between the Shelbyville Elks and the Arlington team, the Shelbyville team is claiming the victory by the score of 22 to 21, instead of Arlington winning, 23 to 22, as announced Wednesday.

In explaining the situation, the Shelbyville Democrat says:

During the final minutes of play, the Elks were leading in the Arlington game by a score of 22-21, when Fletcher, local back guard committed a foul under the Arlington basket. Shortly after the foul was committed and called by the referee the Arlington player, who was fouled, dropped a field goal through the hoop, which, according to rules of the game should not have counted. The referee, in calling the foul, held up two fingers, denoting that the Arlington foul tosser would receive two free throws at the basket, and the Arlington scorers interpreted the signal as meaning that the field goal counted. Both fouls were missed by the Arlington foul thrower, and consequently the correct score is 22-21 in favor of the Elks, since the gun was fired shortly after the fouls were thrown.

The thirty day period in which a new trial could be asked elapsed and the motion was not filed. But Nie wrote a letter to his attorneys here after the expiration of thirty days and said he would like to have a new trial.

Commercialism in Athletics

(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 8.—Taint of commercialism, the greatest evil of sports, is confined to professional activities. Its influence and its bad effect are beginning to be felt in amateur athletics.

Paul H. Henning, chairman of the registration committee of the central A. A. U. district and one of the most active supporters of amateur athletics in the United States, recently suspended Joie Ray because the famous little middle-distance runner had participated in an unsanctioned boxing tournament.

Big athletic clubs in New York were planning to feature the appearance of Ray at their winter meets protested. Henning was overruled. Ray was reinstated and Henning resigned.

Henning declared it was a question of gate receipts and that violation of the rules was not considered.

were the best governed sport in the world. It is still an efficient organization. It has been criticized for autocratic measures at times, but strict discipline requires strict methods.

The A. A. U. is still a wise and scrupulous supervisor of the athlete, but it should apply the same zealous attention to the clubs.

To give an example of the lines of distinction drawn between the athletes and the clubs, a recent incident is recalled. Several big clubs advertised and drew big crowds on the promise that many star athletes would compete. The stars failed to appear and the crowds naturally protested with yells of "the bunk".

Loren Marchison, Jack Scholz and Sol Butler, three prominent athletes, were summoned to appear before the registration committee and explain why they did not appear. It developed that none of them had signed an entry blank and that the club had used their names without their permission.

Scholz claims that it is not the first time that he has been made the victim of such practices.

BE ON THE HONOR ROLL

Basketball fans in Rushville should turn out and see the game, Hittin' 'em don't like the attendance, and we will be tempted to publish the names of all faithful ones who desert.

AN OLD TIMER SECONDS OUR MOTION

Dear Old Hittin' 'em—I want to second that motion of yours! Let's call it the Graham high school of Rushville, and have that word put on the front or back of those red jerseys. I think it would be a good idea to have "Graham" placed underneath of the numbers on the sweaters. It would be something different to have the school name on the back, instead of the front. Signed, R. H. S. '98.

AND ONCE MORE

Mr. Hittin' 'em and Missin' 'em—Keep talking it up. That word "Graham" on the basketball sweaters would be better than any rabbit's foot. It deserves to be there. Signed, Royal Booster.

START HITTIN' 'EM AGAIN GANG, AND QUIT MISSIN' 'EM

We haven't heard what Milroy did with that loving cup they won here last Saturday, but we will wager that they are mighty proud of it. John Geraghty at the Webb school had a shelf all dusted off to receive it.

GREENFIELD NEEDS CASH

Up at Greenfield, they are going to stage a benefit game to help boost the high school treasury, which is away below normal. In the list of deficits, is a hospital bill for $200 as one of the players had to take treatment at Indianapolis.

O, GEE, LOOKIE HERE

Markin' up a few at Newcastle says: Rushville got knocked off in a tournament there Saturday by Moscow. Sort of Bolshevik, as it were.

BASKETBALL IN HANCOCK COUNTY

Our idea of an exciting game, would be to sit through forty minutes of basketball and have the final score 8 to 7. It happened the other night when Cumberland defeated Mt. Comfort. Each team scored a field goal, and the other points were made on fouls. Sounds more like a girl's game, but it wasn't.

COULD BE A LOT WORSE

Newcastle, who drew Shelbyville

in the regional at Ft. Wayne, is consoling themselves anyway. They met Vincennes last year at the regional.

WHERE'S THE DARK HORSE

Connorsville has made all arrangements to go to Ft. Wayne, after winning the sectional here. We're hoping that something will happen before that time. A dark horse many times slips into the race.

Newcastle says that its a long road from the sectional tournament to the state for a lot of teams, including Newcastle.

LISTEN FROM ELWOOD

Sportographs in the Elwood paper says, "We are still picking Elwood to beat Anderson at the sectional and Garfield to win the state." Well old sport, if Elwood beats Anderson in the sectional, why don't you make 'em win the state.

The same writer says again, in a most startling manner: We're pickin' Martinsville to burn up Vincennes again Friday.

WE DON'T AGREE, ELWOOD

Hittin' 'em likes to be different, Elwood. We're pickin' Anderson to win the state, which also means they will beat Elwood in the sectional.

WE'RE NOT WORRYING ABOUT THAT NOW. WHAT WORRIES US, IS—WHO IS GOING TO WIN HERE FRIDAY NIGHT.

HOLD'S RECORD FOR AMATEURS

Charles Jewtraw, of Lake Placid, N. Y., snapped at Johnson City, N. Y., just after he had broken the world's amateur skating record for the three-quarter mile, winning the final heat of that race. Jewtraw also won the half mile and three mile events, bringing his total to five out of six victories, 170 points out of a possible 180 in the first meet of the series for the Adirondack Gold Cup. The New York State Champion breezed through the three-quarter mile in 2:24.5, clipping 32.5 seconds from the world's amateur record of 2:57.5, set last February by William Steinmetz, of Chicago.

At Mystic On Friday

A "red-blooded" picture is one way to sum up Edward "Hoof" Gibson's latest Universal starring vehicle "The Lone Hand", showing Friday at the Mystic Theatre. This Western comedy drama is brimful of action and he-man struggle that registers a thrill to the minute.

The story is from the pen of Ralph Cummins, adapted to the screen by A. P. Younger. Reaves Eason directed the picture.

Supporting the star is a well known cast of players headed by Marjorie Daw. She has the part of the only daughter of a miserly old miner who is suspicious of everyone. William Walsh gives an excellent portrayal of the miser.

The plot created by Cummins is an unusual one. It has to do with a leather-necked cowpuncher who tires of the routine life on the ranch and decides to take a bit of vacation, at a summer resort noted for its exclusiveness and up to the minute style. Of course he cuts a conspicuous figure. He meets a girl who tells him that she, and her aged father are in dire distress; they are being swindled out of their mining property by a group of high bidders. The vacationing cowboy gives up his pleasure chase and sets about showing the crooks that they can't do things like that in his country. He saves the mine, wins a wife and decides he'll never leave the old ranch again.

Battle Scene in Pictures

Young Rajah," mobilized an army of several hundred extra men, dressed them in the costumes of ancient warriors of Hindu mythology, took them out to a mountain location near Chatsworth, California, and one day drilled them for battle and staged a mammoth battle spectacle, which will serve as a colorful vision episode in the picture, which will be shown at the Princess Theatre again today.

The scenes are fantastic in the extreme and represented the legend of the battle of the Arjuna, the mortal brother of Krishna, the Hindu god of Love, with earthly influences. His battle is against his father and brothers, who are tyrants over the people and even seek to slay Arjuna, righteous leader of his people. Inspired by Krishna, however, Arjuna slays his kinsmen and puts his borders to rout, then receives as a reward from Krishna, the divine gift of fortelling the future. Amos Judd, the modern hero of the story, is supposedly a descendant of Arjuna, and possesses that same gift. The visionary legend is introduced to show how Amos Judd came to possess this strange power.

Extensive research work and much delving into Hindu theology and mythology was necessary on the part of June Mathis, who wrote the adaptation in order that these scenes might be true to legend. The numerous warriors had to be costumed; two gilded chariots were used by the leaders, Arjuna and his kinsmen, these being driven by huge Ethiopians. The chariot of Arjuna was driven by a large man made up as an ape. Two mammoth elephants and their trainers were used, symbolizing the use of elephants in the warfare of those ancient times.

BOTH FREE SHOTS MISSED

In the basketball game played at Arlington Tuesday night, between the Shelbyville Elks and the Arlington team, the Shelbyville team is claiming the victory by the score of 22 to 21, instead of Arlington winning, 23 to 22, as announced Wednesday.

In explaining the situation, the Shelbyville Democrat says:

During the final minutes of play, the Elks were leading in the Arlington game by a score of 22-21, when Fletcher, local back guard committed a foul under the Arlington basket. Shortly after the foul was committed and called by the referee the Arlington player, who was fouled, dropped a field goal through the hoop, which, according to rules of the game should not have counted. The referee, in calling the foul, held up two fingers, denoting that the Arlington foul would receive two free throws at the basket, and the Arlington scorers interpreted the signal as meaning that the field goal counted. Both fouls were missed by the Arlington foul thrower, and consequently the correct score is 22-21 in favor of the Elks, since the gun was fired shortly after the fouls were thrown.

Commercialism in Athletics

(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 8—Taint of commercialism, the greatest evil of sports, is confined to professional activities. Its influence and its bad effect are beginning to be felt in amateur athletics.

Paul H. Henning, chairman of the registration committee of the central A. A. U. district and one of the most active supporters of amateur athletics in the United States, recently suspended Joie Ray because the famous little middle-distance runner had participated in an unsanctioned boxing tournament.

Big athletic clubs in New York were planning to feature the appearance of Ray at their winter meets protested. Henning was overruled. Ray was reinstated and Henning resigned.

Henning declared it was a question of gate receipts and that violation of the rules was not considered.

were the best governed sport in the world. It is still an efficient organization. It has been criticized for autocratic measures at times, but strict discipline requires strict methods.

The A. A. U. is still a wise and scrupulous supervisor of the athlete, but it should apply the same zealous attention to the clubs.

To give an example of the lines of distinction drawn between the athletes and the clubs, a recent incident is recalled. Several big clubs advertised and drew big crowds on the promise that many star athletes would compete. The stars failed to appear and the crowds naturally protested with yells of "the bunk".

Loren Murchison, Jack Scholz and Sol Butler, three prominent athletes, were summoned to appear before the registration committee and explain why they did not appear. It developed that none of them had signed as entry blank and that the club had used their names without their permission.

Scholz claims that it is not the first time that he has been made the victim of such practices.

Instead of being so ever ready to plaster a suspension on an athlete, the A. A. U. ought to give some of the club officials a vacation.

Mrs. Guy McBride of Mays has gone to Columbia City, Ind., to attend the wedding of Miss Margaret Mason, which will take place Saturday. Miss Mason is well known here having visited Mrs. McBride, who was formerly Miss Fanny Stiers, on a number of occasions.

The members of the congregation of the First Presbyterian church will hold a reception in the church parlors next Tuesday evening, for their new pastor, the Rev. Gibson Wilson, and family. The reception was planned for Friday evening of this week, but was postponed until next Tuesday evening.

The members of the Get-Together Club met Wednesday afternoon for their regular meeting with Mrs. John A. Gray in North Perkins street. The meeting was a splendid one, with a good attendance. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, February 20, with Mrs. G. P. Manzy, at her home in North Main street.

Seventy guests attended the dinner dance given at the Social club Wednesday evening in North Morgan street. The captains who had charge of serving the delicious dinner were Mrs. Ben Humes and Mr. Harold Pearce. Among the guests present was Mrs. Allen Messick of Marion, Indiana. Following the dinner the remainder of the evening was enjoyed in dancing, the Ki-Barber orchestra of Indianapolis furnishing splendid music.

The following program was given by the Progressive Booster's Class of the First Baptist church Tuesday evening, when they entertained with a six o'clock chicken supper, honoring their pastor and wife, the Rev. and Mrs. Reno Tacoma, and members of the choir and orchestra, of which W. W. Clark is the director. Selections by the orchestra: piano solo, Paul Ridout; violin solo, Una Tacoma, accompanied by Elaine Saunders; "Walking Through Georgia," by Progressive Booster Band; selection by the orchestra.

Barbers' Union Splitting Hairs Over Price of Shave

Chicago, Feb. 8.—A split in the ranks of the barbers union threatened here today as 35 cent shaves went into effect.

The increase from 25 cents was announced by the master of barbers employing union labor. They declared the higher price was necessary because of increased rents. Hair cuts were recently raised from 60 to 75 cents.

The raise of the master barbers was bitterly opposed by the Barber's Union, according to Arthur J. Raymond, secretary.

HEIR 6TH REMOVED IS BORN

Princess Mary Of England Gives Birth To Son Wednesday Night

London, Feb. 8.—A son, heir sixth removed to the British throne, was born to Britain's beloved Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles at Chesterfield House last night. Today's official bulletins proclaimed "Mother and son doing well."

King George and Queen Mary were early at the town house of Viscount Lascelles and his princess wife, and other members of the royal family called to pay respects to the little new-comer, while popular rejoicing amounted almost to a public holiday reigned in London.

An official bulletin at 10 o'clock read: "The Princess Mary passed a comfortable night. Her condition this morning was quite satisfactory."

Word was also issued to the effect that the baby, who despite his mother's royal birth, is only a commoner, with "honorable" as his only title, was doing excellently.

"The bill is framed on the theory that all small schools should be abolished, and the children transported to the larger schools. There is no doubt that the small high school is an expensive luxury, but if we would keep our young people on the farm, their associates and Community life must be developed, in the Country. No township should be retained unless it has a center of some kind where its people, young and old may meet for enjoyment and discussion of public questions, or questions affecting that particular community. Those favoring this bill cannot contend that the larger school is better for the morals of the child than the small school. The all too numerous reports in the daily papers and whispered about, are all too convincing. When the school becomes so large that the teacher and pupil do not have that chance for close personal acquaintance the pupil becomes a mere cog in the wheel, and his individual welfare receives little or no attention until he interferes with the entire machine.

"This bill is so revolutionary and so full of possibilities for harm, that it should not be rushed through this session of the General Assembly. The less machinery we have in our school system, the better. Let our townships retain the right of self determination."

German Police Dogs May Be Used To Catch Bootleggers

Indianapolis, Feb. 8.—German police dogs may be brought to Indianapolis to work in the police department, if plans announced today by Mayor Shank are carried out.

The Mayor said that the dogs would be a great aid to night riding squads, who patrol the city in automobiles to detect crime. Criminals could be caught then without shooting them, the mayor said.

In all probability if the plans are put through, the dogs would be brought to this country and a German trainer would be obtained to train them.

TO DECLINE PLAYERS-- LASKY MOVIE OFFERS

INJUNCTION MODIFIED

Detroit, Feb. 8.—Future offers of Famous Players-Lasky Corporation to make pictures under their direction will not be accepted, Rudolph Valentino, "movie shiek" declares here today.

Valentino, accompanied by his wife, professionally known as Miss Lindy, are on a week's engagement at the Majestic Institute of dancing. This is the "shiek's" first professional appearance anywhere on his own behalf since the injunction served by the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation to restrain him from professional work was modified.

The injunction, as it was modified, forbids Valentino to perform in any theatre, motion picture house, or on the speaking stage.

"That's why I have come to a dancing school, because I do not want to be cited for contempt of court," the "shiek" declared.

"There are two more years to my contract with the Famous Players. I will not run but I will not accept their offer to return to them. I know what they would do in these next two years—try to ruin me. I have not worked hard for six years to throw it all away."

The Valentino's gave several exhibitions of the Argentine Tango.

TODAY IN MUSIC

Oiga Samaroff, pianiste, will make a departure from the conventional program at her New York recital. There will be no printed program and Mme. Samaroff will choose her selections from written requests by the audience and those which suit her "mood" at the time of the concert.

Rubin Goldmark's latest composition, "A Negro Rhapsody," was given its first performance anywhere last year by the New York Philharmonic Orchestra under Josef Stransky. Goldmark's rhapsody is skillfully built on familiar negro tunes, including several of the "spirituals", notably "Nobody Knows De Trouble I've Seen."

Within the space of a short week, three visiting fiddlers delighted New York audiences with their talent. They were Juan Manen, Spaniard; Miss Renee Chemet, French and Miss Erna Rubenstein, German. Erna Rubenstein had been heard here in past seasons and although but sixteen years of age, she is one of the most capable of women violinists. Juan Manen returned after a two years absence played to a crowded house. It would seem that no technical feat is too difficult for him and his tone is beautiful and warm. Miss Chemet, in addition to delivering "the goods" as a violinist, has a charming personality which stands her in good stead with her audiences. These "fiddlers three" are a welcome augmentation to the music season's activities.

George Enesco has been gaining no little fame in three different lines of musical endeavor during the past two weeks in New York. The visitor from Rumania has presented his own compositions played by the Philadelphia Orchestra under his conductorship, including his second "Rhapsodie Roumaine" and his second symphony, and a few days ago, he gave a violin recital in Town Hall, wherein he displayed a splendid control over his instrument. It has been remarked that Rumanians, especially if they have a strain of gypsy blood, can do anything and Enesco is proving it.

Sees Destruction of Home Unless Divorces are Curbed

Chicago, Feb. 8.—The ultimate destruction of the American home, unless nation-wide steps are taken to curb the divorce evil, was predicted today by Dr. Lennie Rhodes, ordained minister and assistant pastor of the Second Baptist church here.

"The divorce question is the greatest problem the nation faces today," Miss Rhodes said. "Timorous legislators and a quiescent public have failed to help the situation."

More rigid marriage laws requiring applicants for licenses to undergo physical and mental examinations were favored by Chicago's only woman minister.

"Secret marriage and elopements should be made violations of the law," she said. "Applications to wed should be in the form of public petitions published in the newspapers for several days."

"The proposed Capper bill does go far enough in its restrictions of grounds for divorce. A greater use of the separation clause would improve the measure."

"Infidelity without collusion and incurable insanity should be the only grounds for divorce."

general fund and an excess in other funds.

Men and women will have equal rights under a bill introduced by Representative Perkins.

The teacher's pension fund law would be replaced in a bill introduced by five representatives. A similar bill has been introduced in the upper house.

A spark of dissention in the Indiana legislature today would touch off a situation of powder keg potentiality.

In the senate, the democratic minority still nursed its threat to leave the session in the squabble over state finances.

In the house, republican leaders admitted that they were not successful in pledging all of their followers to vote for the $2,000,000 reformatory request of Governor McCray and were apprehensive of the outcome.

Democratic leaders in the senate declared the fight for complete information concerning state finances and concerning the reason why the state board of finance has not complied with the law requiring deposits to be designated on the first Monday in January is not ended. It was said some members had information which would cause a profound sensation if made public.

Feeling between the two parties in the senate was still tense when the upper house convened. Although debates had subsided there were reports that more trouble would follow.

A fist-fight was nearly precipitated between Minority Leader Joe Cravens and Senator Dailey, republican, during the debate yesterday when Dailey called Cravens a coward and Cravens lunged at him. Cravens succeeded by a parliamentary coup in writing on the journal his protest against the state board of finance refusing to give the senate information as to the financial condition of Indiana.

A cautious and several other meetings of republican representatives last night preparatory to the appropriation bill coming up for second reading failed to bring complete accord on the reformatory project. It was said a compromise may be affected appropriating $1,500,000. With some sickness in the republican ranks and their normal majority of four votes reduced, it would be necessary for democrats to vote with them to pass the bill. One democrat was said to be pledged to vote with the republicans, but the outcome was in doubt.

It was decided that the house ways and means committee should go to work today on the bill introduced by Representative Burton on the refunding terms.

House leaders meanwhile expected to determine their plan of procedure in the house, Representative Mondell, Republican floor leader, expects to pass the bill in one day. Whether it will be passed Friday of this week or about the middle of next week may depend to some degree on developments in the senate.

REGINALD McKENNA, head of the largest bank in the world, says that "Splendid isolation is a dream," a truth which every industrial leader accepts as axiomatic. Had he substituted monopoly for isolation he would have expressed another self-evident truth which would have been acclaimed by every man who has given serious thought to the development of business on a large scale.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is a big business striving to do a big job in a big way, yet no thought is given to achieving a monopoly: for those who direct the Company's activities know that in any basic industry such an ambition is impossible of fulfillment. Competition is welcome, for no single organization can hope to serve the people of the Middle West with petroleum products as they should be served. The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) enjoys a large volume of business and is satisfied to let this volume take care of its profits.

There is a reciprocal bond between every great industrial organization and the social environment in which it operates. An organization is truly great only when the service it renders is great.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is in daily contact with a community of about 30 million people.

It serves them through a host of useful products refined from petroleum. Through these products it touches the home and industrial life of the people. It enters the sick chamber with mineral oil and petroleum jelly. It enters the factory, the roundhouse, and the farmyard with lubricating oils for machines, engines, and tractors. It seeks the farm home with gasoline, kerosene, candles and paraffin. It touches the railroad right of way with Fortnite Long Time Burner Oil for signal lamps; it supplies thousands of public and private garages with gasoline and lubricants. It feeds the furnaces of homes and factories with Stanolind Furnace Oil. It goes to the hospital with Stanolind Surgical Wax. It paves the streets with Stanolind Paving Asphalt.

These are but a few of the avenues of service which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) maintains. To keep these avenues open the Company operates 1700 service stations, 3900 bulk stations, 7000 tank wagons serving thousands of garages, and 6 great refineries to supply their needs.

Thus does the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) acknowledge its reciprocal bond, and by creating a host of useful, essential products from a single basic raw material—crude petroleum—justify its claim to master craftsmanship in industrial husbandry.

ORDER ROADS TO ISSUE NEW TICKETS

Congress Authorizes Interchangeable Tickets of $90 to be Sold at Reduction of 20 Percent

AFFECTS A LARGE SAVING

Rules and Regulations For Issuance of Tickets Will be Issued by Interstate Commission March 1

Washington, Feb. 8—The interstate commerce commission has ordered the railroads of the country to issue non-transferable interchangeable tickets in the denomination of $90, to be sold at a reduction of twenty percent of the face value of the ticket.

Such tickets were strongly urged by the commercial travelers of the country and congress recently passed a bill authorizing their issuance.

The railroads were ordered to issue the new tickets on and after March 1.

For persons whose travel bill exceeds $90 a year the order amounts to a reduction of 20 percent in passenger fares. No estimate was made of the number of persons thus affected but it is known that the order will affect a large saving to the traveling public and particularly to the business interests who employ large numbers of traveling salesmen.

The tickets will be good for one year from date of sale on all passenger trains, except that in the use on special or extra fare trains owners will be subject to the payment of extra fare.

Railroads issuing the tickets were ordered by the commission to keep a record of the use of the tickets for the first year to determine their effect on passenger revenues.

Rules and regulations for issuance of the tickets will be issued by the commission about March 1.

A $90 ticket will cost $72.

The order applies to approximately 250 roads, including all class one lines. Some smaller roads were exempted.

Applicants for mileage rates asked for a reduction of 33 percent, the rate that prevailed before the privilege was abrogated during the war.

The mileage order is practically a reduction in rates, the first cut since the increases ordered by the interstate commerce commission in August, 1920.

To Owners of Low Priced Cars

If one car lasts you twice as long as another car—even should the second car be only half its price—you would do better to buy the more durable vehicle.

It would cost you less for maintenance; it would give you better performance; its service would prove far more consistent and reliable.

That is why you would do better to buy the Hupmobile.

The Hupmobile gives you greater economy of upkeep and operation than most lower priced cars; and it affords the unfailing service, and the durability, of cars two and three times its price.

WORLD'S TALLEST BUILDING

NEW YORK'S GREAT "GOTHIC CATHEDRAL OF COMMERCE"—TOWERING INTO THE CLOUDS

A remarkable photo, taken from the air, of the great Woolworth Building—highest building in the world—towering over all the other skyscrapers of Manhattan. This picture illustrates a remarkable contrast of American engineering science of half a century and today. Directly in the background is the famous Brooklyn Bridge, almost fifty years old—the first great engineering wonder of the new world, which looms up above all other buildings in the world's greatest "Cathedral of Commerce"—a combination of architectural beauty and commerce. Literally a modern wonder of the world, today. Shown at left, in the background, is the Manhattan Bridge, and Brooklyn stretching itself into the horizon. The Park Row Building, an early skyscraper, is shown like a child against the Woolworth tower, at right. The Postoffice, a famous landmark, is at the foot of the tower (at right). To the left is shown the gold dome of the Pulitzer building and next to it is the Tribune structure.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS EFFECTS FARMERS

NEED MARKET FOR SURPLUS

Depends on Europe to Take Surplus and Prices Paid There Largely Control Domestic Prices

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
By CHARLES R. LYNCH

Chicago, Feb. 8.—The farmer is getting out of the financial hole into which he was plunged when the price of farm products crashed in 1920.

The future of the farmer and his ability to climb all the way to the top of the hole depends on developments in the foreign situation. David R. Forgan, president of the National City Bank told the United Press today. Forgan, through his bank, is in close touch with farm conditions in all parts of the country.

"With the 1923 crop season about to start the American farmer finds himself in fine condition at home but in a mess abroad," Forgan said. "And no matter how good the condition is here his future success depends largely on the foreign situation which is exceptionally critical."

"The farmer must find a market for his surplus crops. Not only does he depend on Europe to take this surplus but the prices paid in Europe largely control domestic prices. "The truck and fruit farmer, within a short distance of a big city, is by far the best situated."

"The cotton farmer of the south, with cotton at 26 cents, has succeeded in liquidating most of his debts."

"The livestock and grain farmers are in the worst position with the former bearing the greatest load."

"On an average I would say that the farmer has recovered 50 percent from the depression."

"The only assistance the farmer can get now is in the nature of a financially and economically reconstructed Europe, and apparently the situation abroad is one which must get worse before it can get better."

PURDUE BARRED ROCKS FIFTH IN EGG CONTEST

Purdue hens have again sprung into the lime-light as egg producers. The Poultry Department for the second time has entered ten Barred Plymouth Rock pullets in the world's greatest egg laying contest held at the Connecticut Experiment Station at Storrs, Conn. There are 100 different pens entered and for the year ending Nov. 1, 1922 the Purdue pen was twentieth.

This year the birds are starting off much better and among the pens of birds that are of dual purpose, breeds Purdue is becoming quite prominent. Of the twenty-six Plymouth Rock pens entered, Purdue holds fifth place for the first eleven weeks of the present contest, being two eggs behind the fourth pen. For the month of December the Purdue pen was second, laying 128 eggs out of a possible 300. During the first two weeks of January, Purdue has led Plymouth Rocks with 76 eggs out of a possible 140 and held fourth place among the sixty pens of Plymouth Rocks, Wyandottes and Rhode Island Reds.

The ten Purdue pullets were raised on the university farm and selected by external characteristics of high egg production. In other words their future egg production was estimated by handling the birds and at the present rate they bid fair to average close to 200 eggs each for the year.

Exceptionally high laying strains of Barred Rocks and White Leghorns are being developed at the University and the methods by which this is being done is being taught thousands of Indiana farmers through the extension service.

Don't Let That Cold Turn Into "Flu"

Rub on Good Old Musterole

That cold may turn into "Flu," Grippe or, even worse, Pneumonia, unless you take care of it at once.

Rub good old Musterole on the congested parts and see how quickly it brings relief.

Colds are merely congestion. Musterole, made from pure oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other simple ingredients, is a counter-irritant which stimulates circulation and helps break up the cold.

As effective as the messy old mustard plaster, it does the work without the blister.

Just rub it on with your finger-tips. You will feel a warm tingle as it enters the pores, then a cooling sensation that brings welcome relief.

COMBINE ALL DRY BILLS INTO ONE

Question Came Up As Special Order Of Business On Motion Of Rep. Harris Of Lake County

ELIMINATES CONFLICTION

Some Of Dry Bills Pending In House Approved By Senate And Others Have Been Introduced

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 8.—All dry bills seeking to make prohibition more stringent were combined into one by the state house of representatives today. The question came up as special order of business on motion of Representative J. Glenn Harris of Lake county.

Harris said his reason for making the motion was that the measures pending in the house may have some conflicting clauses that would cause confusion in the courts when they would be enforced. In making them into one bill the conflicting parts would be eliminated, he said.

Some of the dry bills pending in the house have been approved by the senate and others have been introduced by representatives. If the house carries out its intention, the measure would have to go through the mills of legislative machinery again.

The bills that have passed the senate and introduced in the house are as follows:

Make conveyance of more than one quart of intoxicating liquor in any vehicle a felony, punishable by one to five years imprisonment and a fine not exceeding $1,000.

Adding a jail sentence of thirty days for first offense against prohibition laws and providing imprisonment of one to two years for second offense and optional fine of $200 to $1,000. This bill would also prevent the suspension of sentences.

Five liquor bills introduced in the house are still awaiting consideration are:

Making it a felony to transport intoxicating liquor in a vehicle that is mortgaged or is not owned by the driver or where fire arms are carried.

Making a person convicted of driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated pay a fine of not more than $500 and serve a prison term of not more than six months; providing also that any person guilty of injuring another while driving a vehicle and failing to report the accident punishable by a fine not to exceed $500.

Providing any citizen may institute abatement proceedings to enjoin operations by liquor law violators.

The first and original Cold and Grip Tablet, the merit of which is recognized by all civilized nations.

A remarkable aerial view showing the Star Spangled Banner flying over the proudest fortress of old Germany: "Ehrenbreitstein", the famed "Gibraltar of the Rhine", at the juncture of the Rhine (in foreground) and Moselle rivers, opposite to Coblenz. This section of Germany was under the control of the Army of Occupation from December 1st, 1918, when the stars and stripes were hoisted over the fortress, to January 24, 1923. On the point of land between the rivers is seen the huge equestrian statue of Kaiser Wilhelm I. Across the river from Ehrenbreitstein is Coblenz-Sutzel, the former quartermaster and motor transport base.

THE HOME GARDEN

What is Home without a Garden?

THE WHY AND WHERE OF GARDENING

Few are so favored of fortune that they have the ideal soil or situation for a garden. But such lack is no particular cause for worry. If the soil is not clear sand or gravel, and is not located in deep, impenetrable shade, it can be made to grow and yield a crop of vegetables.

The one absolute essential is sun. A vegetable garden to be a success must have sun for at least part of the day. There are a few vegetables

Also, it is not necessary to worry over securing a supply of barnyard manure, which is becoming more and more a matter of difficulty and expense, unless the soil is very light and sandy. In the ordinary run of soil, a very successful vegetable garden may be grown with the use of commercial fertilizers easily procurable of any seed dealer.

There will always be a supply of autumn leaves, grass clippings, and dried weeds to be had, and these may be utilized for the most valuable function of barnyard manure—supplying humus to the soil. Up-to-date gardeners are making more and more use of these materials and so-called "green manures" to replace the decreasing supply of animal manures—and with excellent results. "Green manure" is a crop of clover or some other leguminous plant plowed under to improve the soil.

If you have a patch of land which is sunny for most of the day, do not hesitate to start your garden. It will be a good investment, provide healthful exercise, and furnish a new interest.

The home garden offers the only means by which some of our favorite vegetables can be placed at their best on your table.

Sweet corn is a striking example. Within half an hour after an ear is picked the loss of sugar content begins, through chemical action. The better varieties of sweet corn contain from 5 percent up of sugar, which gives them their delicious flavor. Only the home gardener, who learns to tell when the corn has arrived at that stage of development which is "just right", and who picks it at that stage, cooks it briefly in boiling water—again "just right", and sinks his teeth into its well-buttered tenderness half an hour after it has left the stalk—only he knows what sweet corn really is. Others may think they know, but for all who have not experienced the treat described, there is a joy remaining which they should not miss before they die.

Resolve to know it this year, and plan your garden now.

MODERN PIED PIPER SAYS HE WILL RID CITY OF RATS

Marion, Ind., Feb. 8.—Hamlin town in Brunswick where the Pied Piper lured all rats away will have nothing on Marion.

J. R. Waterman, modern pied piper, who says he will rid the city of rats. Instead of music, Waterman will use barium carbonate a white crystalline salt which make the varmints turn up their heels in four to thirty hours he said.

Waterman has received the sanction of the city board of health in his drive.
